

Benefit Style Show, Luncheon Set May 15 by Laboure Council

EXOTIC—Chamber president J. H. Paget views dress rehearsal by Mmes Kenneth Allen (left) and Robert Schloeder of the St. Catherine Laboure Council's style show on May 15. —Press Photo

Event Will Aid School Parish

The tropical decor of the Polynesian Restaurant will be the setting when St. Catherine Laboure Council of Catholic Women presents its benefit fashion show and luncheon May 15.

Entitled "Polynesian Paradise," the show will feature summer and fall wear for all phases of California living. Guest of honor at the event will be J. H. Paget, president of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce.

Members modeling couturier fashions from Lilyan's Gown Shop will be Maryanne Martin and Mmes. Joseph Orchard, Donald Moreau, Gilbert Bush, George Pleick, George Molinelli, and Newall Larsen. Hats will be provided by the Mad Hatter.

The Misses Jackie Westwood, Mary Evans, and Vickie Kestle will show Lilyan's summer collection for beach, patio, and mountain.

Mothers-to-be may view the latest in maternity wear from the Beach Maternity Shop, modeled by Mmes. Everett Plewes and John Hollinger.

Sean Pryor, Kathy McCab, Linda Erickson, and Susan Adams, students at St. Catherine Laboure School, will show rough-and-tumble and party wear for their peers from Byrne's Tidy Tots.

A special feature of the event will be a parade of South-sea-island fashions from the Polynesian Gift Shop.

During intermission, guests will be entertained by the Islanders in a musical program under direction of Mrs. Walter Hanf.

The event will conclude with a grand raffle awarding the winner a three-day, expense-paid trip for two to the Hacienda Hotel in Las Vegas. Mrs. Roy Stinchcomb, president, will select the winning ticket.

Mmes. Moreau and James R. Weber are in charge of arrangements. Assisting are Mmes. Philip Cogbill, Robert Schloeder, Charles Settle, Kenneth Allen, Tom Gillogly, Eric Schuster, Henry Busuttill, Joseph Remlinger, and Derek Englebert.

Reservations may be made by calling Mmes. Lewis Gleason at OS 5-3784 or Charles Gibbon at OS 6-0301.

Proceeds from the show will be used for parish improvements and school additions.

Hospital Auxiliary Will Host Tour

Members of the Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary will be hostesses at the hospital open house in observance of National Hospital Week Tuesday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Mrs. Leonard A. Ensminger is chairman of the event. She will be assisted by Mmes. Gerald Eastham and William E. Grubbs, decorations; and Don Hyde, John Popovich, and Henry Creeger, refreshments.

Auxiliary members will guide visitors to all departments of the hospital, including such seldom seen places as the laundry, kitchen, and pharmacy.

In each an auxiliary member will be stationed to explain the function and method of operation. Refreshments will be served in the hospital staff room.

Church, State Lecture Slated by Sisterhood

Temple Menorah Sisterhood will hear Lawrence Lucks, assistant director of community relations for Greater Los Angeles speak on church and state problems at its last business meeting of the year, Monday, at 8:30 p.m. at Temple Menorah, 112 N. Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach.

Lucks, a graduate of USC is an instructor in human relations and industrial management. Mrs. Gene Kaufman, president of Temple Menorah Sisterhood will conduct the meeting. Plans for the May-donor luncheon and installation dinner will be discussed.

Guests were welcomed to a reception in the latter-day Saints recreation hall following the service. After a wedding trip to Hawaii, the couple will live in Waller.

Mrs. Guymon was graduated from Narbonne High School last year. She is employed in customer service at the Torrance Sears and Roebuck. Her husband attended Gardena High School and is now with Fox Market in Torrance.

Alpha Delta Pi's of Southern California will gather to commemorate the 109th anniversary of their sorority May 14, at the chapter house on the UCLA campus.

Mrs. Harl D. Crockett, president of the Southern area council, has appointed Mrs. G. J. Hessick, as founder's day chairman.

DEPRESSION DANCE—Mrs. Julius Elliott (left), Cheryl Kaelke, 3, and Mmes. Victor Kaelke and Joe Laurich get into the spirit of things for Cub Scout 761C Auxiliary's depression dinner dance tomorrow evening at Evelyn Carr School. Proceeds aid pack. —Press Photo

AAUW Will Host Prospective Joiners at Tea

The American Association of University Women, Palos Verdes, Rolling Hills Branch, will host prospective members at its annual spring tea Sunday in the home of Dr. Maxine Zeigler. Helen Randolph is chairman.

On May 19 the education-study group will be in charge of a meeting in the Palos Verdes Art Gallery.

Guest speaker will be Jan W. Plum, supervisor of counselling and guidance for high schools in the Los Angeles City School System.

Plum will discuss testing, scholarships, and guidance and counselling services available in the schools.

YWCA Members Hear Talk on Work Overseas

"Around the World With the YWCA" was the topic of a talk given by Mrs. Bartlett Heard of the national board when she spoke at the 38th annual meeting of the Harbor Area YW.

Mrs. Heard, a member of the foreign division committee, has served as a member of the World Council and attended council meetings in China, Lebanon, and England.

She told of her visits to YWCAs in Athens, Karachi, Bombay, Ceylon, Burma, Bangkok, and Hong Kong, and pointed out the similarities between work abroad and in the United States.

In addition she described YW projects from student hostels, and literacy classes, to camps for working mothers, and work with the handicapped.

Dinner Planned for Daughters and Mothers

Walteria Community Methodist Church will fete the distaff side of its congregation at a mother-and-daughter banquet tomorrow at 6 p.m. in the social hall.

Marianne Anderson is in charge of arrangements. Her committee comprises Helen Herrera, June Zuber, Neva Wands, and Virginia Jung.

During the evening the Women's Society will reveal secret mothers to the World Friendship Girls' Club.

TEEN ROADEO SET MAY 15 BY JAYCEES

Registration for participation in the Jaycees' teen-age rodeo, scheduled May 15, will close tomorrow at midnight.

The event, open to all Torrance teen-agers between the ages of 16 and 19, will start at 10 a.m. on Alaska St. Applications may be obtained from school driving instructors.

The winner will be eligible to compete in the state finals; state winner may enter the national finals in Washington D.C.

Women

Joan Briggs, Woman's Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Rummage Sale Will Feature Pictures, Pots

Purses, pictures, and pots will be among the items featured tomorrow and Friday when the Nativity Altar Society holds its giant rummage sale at the parish hall, 1420 Cota Ave. Sale hours are from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Other booths will offer children and adult clothing, jewelry, curtains, dishes, furniture, light fixtures and shades, and knickknacks.

Mmes. Frank Zboyan, M. J. Boudeaux, and F. H. Dihope are chairmen. Assisting them are Mmes. Clarence Junior, Harry F. Kale, Michael Catena, James O'Brian, Joseph Tardie, Al Bahni, George Klinek, F. J. Matosky, Jack Redding, Edmund Metivier, C. R. Thornton, Lawrence Jordan, Walter Cason, Neil McConlogue, Joseph Cernore, and Arnold O'Connor.

In charge of sales are Regina Cunningham and Margaret Barth, and Mmes. Russell Comon, J. E. Powers, J. L. Dunmyer, T. B. McLaughlin, W. O. Putman, Elles Cook, C. G. Dean, and Fred Cameron.

Mmes. John Tweedy, Clayton Bowen, Robert Moffitt, Salvatore Felix, Norris Carstenson, Andrew Shanley, Walter Cason, and Milton Bruce are in charge of preparing the items for sale.

Bethel Initiates Ten Members

Bethel 36, IOJD, welcomed 10 new members at two meetings last month. Sheila Denman, honored queen, presided at the initiation ceremonies.

Joining the group were the Misses Karla Clark, Sandra Coleman, Sharon Savolal, Kathy Sharp, Gail St. George, Kathy Davis, Jan Foyle, Kathy Lehman, Jan Peppin, and Candy Pierce.

British Empire Is Delphian Topic

"The British Empire in World Affairs" will be the topic for discussion when the Delta Tau Delta Chapter of the Delphian Society meets today at the Fish Shanty.

Mrs. Paul Sylvester will lead the discussion. Subtopics will be introduced by Mmes. Donald Beery, Harold A. Bartlett, L. Austin Weeks, Merrill Stone, and D. Bruce Robinson.

MRS. WAYNE MAC GUYMON
Honeymooning in Hawaii

Miss Dawson Bride of Wayne M. Guymon

Miss Beverly Joan Dawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dawson, 913 Gastine St., became the bride of Wayne Mac Guymon in a latter-day Saints ceremony Saturday in Halversen Leavell Chapel. Bishop Elbert Steele heard the double-ring vows.

The benediction is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Guymon, 1544 Torrance Blvd.

The new Mrs. Guymon, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of nylon tulle and chantilly lace. She carried a white orchid surrounded by stephanotis.

Attending the bride were the Misses Jean McLachlan, maid of honor, and Roberta Conner and Shirley Galloway, bridesmaids. All wore shades of pink chiffon over matching taffeta. Flower girl Ronda Von Ravensberg was in graduating shades of pink.

Mrs. Dawson's ensemble was of flowered-pink taffeta with matching chiffon overskirt. The bridegroom's mother wore flowered-blue silk.

George Simons was best man. Jerry Walker and Keith Edwards ushered.

Guests were welcomed to a reception in the latter-day Saints recreation hall following the service.

After a wedding trip to Hawaii, the couple will live in Waller.

Mrs. Guymon was graduated from Narbonne High School last year. She is employed in customer service at the Torrance Sears and Roebuck. Her husband attended Gardena High School and is now with Fox Market in Torrance.

PTA News

Policy, Organization to Be Council Topics

Policy, history, and organization will be among the topics under consideration when the Gardena Council meets Monday at 9:30 a.m. Mrs. J. R. Gaydoski will lead the discussion.

Mrs. C. N. Peterson will present a special report on finance. At the afternoon session, Mrs. Charles Weddle will conduct a seminar on parliamentary procedure.

At a recent meeting council members heard an address entitled "The Meaning of Education" by Georgiana Hardy.

Mrs. Hardy stressed the importance of conversing with children and the need to create good family conversation.

"Stop, look, and listen, to find your child's special gifts and aid their development," she said. "Education is growth and children must not be allowed to freeze into set patterns."

Mrs. Hardy also urged that parents teach their children discipline respect for life, and pride in their achievements. "However," she added, "be sure their achievements are their own."

Health Can Be Wealthy Topic at 259th Place

Good Health Can Be Wealthy is the subject of the 259th Place PTA meeting Tuesday in the school auditorium. Members will discuss cancer and view a film, "Time and Two Women."

At the conclusion of the film, a physician from the American Cancer Society will answer questions from the audience.

Refreshments will be served at 12:30 p.m. the meeting will start at 1 p.m. Child care is provided. On May 16 a waffle brunch will be given by the group, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Dan Bowling, 26200 Governor St. Proceeds will benefit child welfare at the school.

Columbia Members Dine, View Slides

Columbia PTA recently held a pot-luck dinner under direction of Mrs. Clayton Bowen, program chairman.

Following the dinner, members and students viewed slides entitled "The New Columbia Story," shown by Lester Foster, principal.

Membership Tea Slated Today by Las Madrecitas

Las Madrecitas, South Bay Auxiliary to Orthopedic Hospital, will hold its annual membership tea at the home of Mrs. Benjamin Kuhn in Rolling Hills.

Mrs. Ernest Dahlman, past president of the auxiliary, will give a short address on the future activities of the group.

Mmes. William Buchana and Robert Friedson are tea chairmen. Assisting them are Mmes. Louis Bednarchik, Richard Egan, Hans Hansen, Lowell Klatscher, and Phil Steinberg.

Rebekahs Fete Officers

Trio Rebekah Lodge 420 honored its 1959 officers at a recent meeting in Charles King Hall, Harbor City. Lurah Bost, past noble grand, entertained.

Mrs. Shrader New President of Calle Mayor

Mrs. Melvin Shrader, 5404 Carol Dr., will be seated as 1960-61 president of Calle Mayor PTA at an installation meeting Tuesday in the school cafeteria.

Previously Mrs. Shrader has served the association as hospitality chairman, room chairman, and court chairman. She and her husband have two children, Steven, 9, and Nancy, 13.

Others taking office are Mmes. Warren Boggs, Frank Burk, and R. C. Burks, vice president; Horace Radney, secretary; Leonard Priestly, treasurer; and Wilfred Ching, historian.

MRS. MELVIN SHRADER
Calle Mayor President

MRS. JERRY JOE SCIARROTTA
May Day Bride

Kail-Sciarrotta Nuptials Recited at St. Andrew's

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Redondo Beach, was the setting Sunday for the candlelight service uniting Miss Bonnie Cecil Mae Kail and Jerry Joe Sciarrotta. The Rev. Paul Cox heard the double-ring vows.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kail, 1544 W. 226th St. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ross Sciarrotta, 21017 Madrona Ave.

Miss Kail was attired in an Alfred Angelo original of silk organza and chantilly lace featuring a chapel train edged in clipped chantilly. A crown of pearls and sequins over lace secured an English-silk illusion veil. Her bridal bouquet of orchids and lily-of-the-valley on a white Bible completed the wedding ensemble.

She was escorted by her father down an aisle marked with candelabra and nosegays of white gladioli. The chancel was banked with chrysanthemums, gladioli, and stock.

Mrs. John Kittle, the bride's sister, chose pale blue chiffon for her role as matron of honor. She carried a cascade of blue carnations.

Bridesmaids were the Misses Jane Rowe, Sharon McNally, and Patty and Maria Sciarrotta, sisters of the benedict. All wore pale pink chiffon and carried pink carnations.

Flower girl Tonni Sciarrotta, and the benedict's niece, was in white tulle with a lace bonnet and rance.

carried a white basket of pink rosebuds topped by a rose corsage and pink and white streamers.

Lighting the candles were the Misses Cecil and Kaye Kail in gowns of blue chiffon with white-ribbon headpieces and corsages of blue and white carnations.

Mrs. Kail and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Cecil Kail, were in navy blue with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother was in aqua.

Don Sciarrotta served as his brother's best man. Ken Kail, Mick Jelsma and Frank and Ross Sciarrotta ushered. Johnny Kittle was ring bearer.

Melville Tully sang "I Love Thee," "The Wedding Prayer," and "The Lord's Prayer." He was accompanied by Mrs. Tully at the organ.

The new Mrs. Sciarrotta, a junior past honored queen of the Torrance Bethel Job's Daughters, was graduated from Narbonne High School. She is employed by Pacific Semiconductors in Lawndale.

Mrs. Sciarrotta was graduated from Torrance High School and is employed by the city of Torrance.