Two Win Top Honors

Award-winning hair stylists of El Camino College were named last week following competition staged on the campus.

Claiming top honors as a senior hair stylist was Miss Sandra Sue Gish of Torrance, whose model was Miss Delta Valle of Inglewood.

Miss Gish's junior class counterpart was Miss Charlotte Page of Lawndale, whose first place coiffure was modeled by Miss Ann Bliss of Manhattan Beach.

Second place winners were Miss Patricia Beckett of the senior division and Miss Shari Decker, Junior. Miss Beckett is a resident of Torrance; Miss Decker lives in Hawthorne.

Hair styles were judged on suitability to the model, smoothness of style, current trend and workmanship.

Judges were Joseph Engert of Santa Monica, Mrs. Lonele Lockhart of El Segundo and Mrs. June Roisman, a former student of El Camino College and winner of the Cuthill Memorial Award in 1957.

The award is a national scholarship

PTA News

Yukon Will Install New Officers Today

Yukon PTA will install new officers today at 7:30 p.m. at its final meeting of the year.

Mrs. Joseph Fletcher, newly-elected president will receive the gavel from outgoing president, Mrs. Glen Mahoney. Taking office with Mrs. Fletcher will be Mmes. Wilber Bray, Edward Schneider, and Victor Moore, vice presidents; Elmer Groves, recording secretary; Wendall Towell, corresponding secretary; Edward Sperry, treasurer; James Bramlett, historian; and Mr. Paul Sittel, auditor.

Mrs. William Poser, past president of Torrance Council PTA, will conduct the installation ceremonies.

Guest speakers from the Torrance Parks and Recreation Dept. will discuss activities and recreational facilities planned by the department for the summer months.

The historian's report will be read by Mrs. Robert Chavez. A report on the recent California Congress of Parents and Teachers in San Francisco will be given. Mmes. Fletcher, and Moore, delegates.

Mrs. Poser Installs Madrona Officers

Mrs. William Poser, president of Torrance Council PTA was guest of honor and installing officer at the May meeting of Madrona PTA.

Those taking office were Mmes. J. W. Cassidy, president; Ray Stewart, Kenneth Davis, and William Valles, vice presidents; and Joe Mongini, recording secretary.

Also Mmes. James Wayt, corresponding secretary; M. E. Momo, treasurer; Hug Brady, historian; Mr. Cecil Paschall, auditor; and Mrs. Robert Hagenbaugh, parliamentarian.

Sponsored groups of the association participating in the program were Girl Scout Troop 10, Boy Scout Troop 201 Cub Pack 221 C, Brownie Troop 288, Cub Pack 201 C, Brownie Troop 1356, Girl Scout Troop 1088, Scout Troop 707, and Brownie Troop 743.

Fern-Greenwood School Installs New Officers

Mrs. G. W. Ackerman will be installed as president of Fern-Greenwood PTA today at the association's monthly meeting.

Taking office with Mrs. Ackerman are Mmes. Bert Lynn, H. S. Rogers, and Mr. Joe Brandon, vice presidents; Mmes. P. H. Slyh, recording secretary; F. C. Barnett, corresponding secretary; and D. D. Watkins, treasurer.

Also Mrs. S. F. Albright, historian; and Mr. Paul Hardy, author. Mrs. William Poser, Torrance Council PTA president, will be installing officer.

Immediately following the meeting, members will attend the school's open-house program.

Torrance Council Gives Three Scholarships

Elizabeth Edwins of North High, Patricia Cassone of South High, and Lynn Keller of Torrance High were recipients of the Torrance Council PTA scholarship awarded at the group's annual May Brunch. Mrs. Otto Willett, Council scholarship chairman, made the presentations.

Assisting Mrs. Willett and the PTA scholarship committee in the screening and selecting the candidates were college counselors from each of the high schools, Lillian Dean, South High; Marion Smerdel, North High; and Jerry Ronan, Torrance High.

Torrance PTA scholarships are awarded annually to students of the city's high schools who plan to enter the teaching profession.

Halldale Members Told of School Land Purchase

Amanda Wilhelm, principle of Halldale School, told PTA members at a recent meeting that the school purchased an adjacent 1-2/3 acre to enlarge the school playground, and build additional bungalows, and an off-street faculty parking lot.

She also said the school planned a complete face lifting during the summer. All furniture will be refinished or replaced, she added.

Mrs. Judson Bowers, PTA president, reported on her recent trip to the state PTA convention in San Francisco. She told members a Halldale membership poster entitled "Hit the Top of the Scale" was on display at the conference.
