Fisher Imports Names Two as New Managers

As a preliminary to an aggressive new sales program, Fisher Imports this week named new managers for its retail car outlets in Los Angeles and Manhattan Beach.

Announcement was made by Kenny Fisher, president of the company.

Taking over as general manager of Fisher Imports, 211 N. Western in Los Angeles, is Sam Bolding, who has been in the automotive business four years. He was previously a sales engineer in heating and air conditioning. His hobby is Little League Baseball, and he managed a team for two years.

In Fisher's block-long Manhattan Beach agency—Manhattan Motors, 2301 Sepulveda—the new sales manager is Roy Sills. He has been associated with this company for three years, having also worked under the former management, and has been selling imported cars for five years. Prior to that, he was also connected with the automotive business.

Fisher Imports is a representative of Rootes Motors, which includes Hillman, Humber, Alpine, Singer and Sunbeam cars. Also of Volvo, Borgward, BMW, and Triumph.
