Noble Noor Slated to Start in Cinema Stake Race

Noble Noor, a hard luck colt with championship possibilities who has missed such important engagements this year as the Kentucky Derby and Hollywood Park's Will Rogers and Argonaut Stakes, is expected to make a fresh start in the $50,000 added Cinema Handicap at Hollywood Park Saturday.

The mile and one-eighth cinema, last major stepping stone to the $100,000 added Hollywood Derby on July 9, will draw all the top three-year-olds in training at the Inglewood track.

The field will include T.V. Lark, Henrijan and New Policy, the 1-2-3 of the Argonaut, as well as Flow Line, winner of the Will Rogers. Noble Noor has beaten all of these horses at one time or another, but because of training accidents has had no chance to star in the current competition at Hollywood Park.

Noble Noor won the $163,850 Hollywood Juvenile championship last summer and was voted the best two-year old of the '59 Hollywood meeting. This year he won the mile and one-eighth California Derby at Bay Meadows and was runner up in two stakes at Santa Anita. An injury to his right fore leg in winning the California Derby kept Noble Noor out of the Kentucky Derby. Grabbing a right front quarter sidelined him for the Will Rogers and Argonaut at Hollywood Park.

The Cinema Handicap won last year by Silver Spoon over Kentucky Derby winner Tomy Lee and others, promises to be another thriller this week-end. Noble Noor beat Henrijan a head in the California Derby. Flow Line won the Will Rogers by a neck and Henrijan forced T.V. Lark right down to the wire in the Argonaut.

The Cinderella stakes on Thursday, June 23, is at five furlongs for two-year fillies. It is the final major stepping stone to the race which determines the divisional championship, the $25,000 added Hollywood Lassie stakes on July 7. Sweet As Louise, a good winner last Thursday, Amri-An, Gold Venus, a runner up in three stakes, unbeaten Never More and others are included in the list of 22 nominees.

Summer School Classes Start Next Monday

Summer-school classes for some 9500 youngsters in the Torrance Unified School District will start tomorrow, according to Trudy Aldershot, director.

Nearly 7000 elementary and 2500 high-school students have signed up for the six-week summer session, which ends July 29. The high-school figures include some 1400 eighth-graders who will do exploratory high-school work, either auditing the courses or taking them for credit.

At the three high schools, classes will run from 8 to 10 and from 10 to 12 in the morning. Courses will be offered in nearly all fields, depending upon demand. Students must decide by the end of the first week whether they are taking courses for audit or credit.

High-school reports will be issued at the third and sixth week. Students are allowed only three absences without some special permission.

No school buses will transport summer pupils. Torrance police have announced crossing guards will be stationed at Carson and Kent, 187th and Crenshaw, 182nd and Crenshaw, Dalemead and 230th and Hawthorne, Hawthorne and Pacific Coast Hwy., and "other spots where they may be needed."

All elementary schools will be open during the summer, with the programs there considered extensions of the regular school year. Report cards will be issued at the end of the fifth week to students who have attended more than half of the sessions.

Starting times at the elementary schools are:
8-12:30—Lincoln, Magruder and Wood.

8-10-12:30—Edison Walter-la.

8-15-12:35—Anza, Arlington, Calle Mayor, Casimir, Crenshaw, Flavian, Hamilton, Hillside, Newton, Parkway, Perry, Riviera, Seaside, Sepulveda, Steele, Torrance Elementary and Yukon.

8-30-12:50—Adams, Fern Greenwood, Jefferson, Madrona, Meadow Park.

8-40-1:00—Carr.
Sessions at Columbia School will be from 8:30-11:30 for the primary children and from 9 to 1 for upper grade youngsters.

A home teacher and speech therapy classes will be available also.
