Museum Slates Monthly Tour for Children

The Los Angeles County Museum's monthly Children's Gallery Tour is scheduled for 10:30 to 11:45 a.m. Saturday. Frances Roberts Nugent, museum staff lecturer, and the museum volunteers will conduct this month's tour through the current exhibition of the paintings of the French Impressionist, Claude Monet.

As usual, the children will have ample opportunity to sketch. They may bring their own drawing materials to be sure to be adequately supplied, or use those provided. This tour is open to children 7 to 12 years of age.

Community Sings Open to Public

City-sponsored community sing programs, presented weekly throughout the Los Angeles area, offer to top amateur and semi-professional talent an excellent opportunity to present their specialties and try out new routines before live audiences, according to actor George Milan, supervisor and program director of community sings for the Los Angeles Bureau of Music, Department of Municipal Art.

Milan said the Bureau of Music will hold auditions for performers, who will appear on variety programs at the weekly community sings, July 19, from 2 to 5:30 p.m., and from 7 to 10 p.m., in the auditorium of the new L.A. Police Building.

The audition is open to all kinds of talent — singers, dancers, specialty artists, comedians, etc. Entertainers intending to audition can register for an appointment time by writing or calling the Bureau of Music, 1306 City Hall, Los Angeles 12.
