

PROUD AND HAPPY Mrs. Kenneth J. McDonald, 5204 Emerald Ave., Torrance, was the winner of a new RCA Victor television set awarded by Border's Market, Torrance Blvd. and Henrietta St., during the firm's grand opening celebration which ended Saturday, July 2. Other prize winners were Mrs. S. J. Naperola, Marie Niahous, Delores Bruigler, Mrs. Vera Lay, W. T. Erlinger Jr., J. L. Shields, Marvin Seiffert, Milton Mcenanway, Dale F. Olson, Dean Neidhardt, and Mrs. Helen Millhame.

College Workshop Presents First of Drama Shows

El Camino College's Summer Theatre Workshop, will present "State of the Union," first of the summer series of three, in the Campus Theatre July 15 and 16 at 8:30 p.m. under direction of Howard Banks of the college's drama faculty.

"State of the Union," by Howard Lindsay and Russell Crouse, is particularly appropriate at present, since it is a satirical play dealing with the inner working of a national production; topical references have been brought up to date and the comedy is as fresh as this morning's newspaper.

Starring in the student production are Orley Lindgren, Mike Hoctor, Steve LaFrance, Marge Pickering, Ann Carver and Julie Henderson.

"Antigon," as translated by French playwright Jean Anouilh, will be presented July 22 and 23; curtain time 8:30 p.m. Produced in modern-dress, this re-interpretation of the old Greek tragedy of conflicting power-aims will star Sandra Yates in the title role, co-star Neal Jardine as Creon who is supported by Ron Calkins and Sue Allin.

"Sabrina Fair," third and last play in the summer series, by Samuel Taylor is a light, sophisticated comedy of manners, dealing with high-society high-jinks. It will be presented July 29 and 30 at 8:30 p.m. Penny Phillips and Ron Calkins will co-star, supported by Sally Yates, Ann Menelaus, Bill Rufford, Cliff Potts and Tony Castano.

Admission is 75 cents, all seats reserved. Reservations may be secured by calling the Campus Theatre Box Office, FAculty 1-1124, or the El Camino Bookstore, DAvis 4-6631 (extension 229), before 9 p.m.

Scouts Hold Awards Court

Pancakes, sausages, orange juice, milk and coffee were prepared by den mothers and served to Cub Scouts and their families at its recent breakfast in Alondra Park.

Following the breakfast, George Schindler, Cubmaster, presented Wolf badges to Roy Funk and David Craig; Bear badge to Mike Cloyd; assistant Denner stripes to David Laven and Gary Silbaugh; and one-year pins to Mark DeSynadinos and Larry Bailey.

Roy Funk, Craig Leavitt, and David Laven received silver arrows and a gold arrow went to Roy Funk.

Ronnie Smith was graduated from Webelos Cub Scout to Boy Scout. A den-chief braid went to Pat Boyd.

Participating in the award ceremony were Bob Smith, Bob Johnson, Nate Kliever, Paul Ragland, Dick Wallace, and Jack Johnson.
