The four-day competition marks the first big league effort here to present professional bowling as a genuine spectator attraction. A limited number of reserved seats and standing room tickets are still available at the box offices at Bowl-O-Drome for the co-sponsored Professional Bowlers' Association and Alex Schreiber and Family Enterprises 36-game competition today, tomorrow, Friday and Saturday.

Bowl Six Games
All entries are scheduled to bowl six games today on squads at noon, 3, 7 and 10 p.m. The field will be cut to 96 bowlers for the 12-game semifinals at noon, 3, 7 and 10 p.m. on Friday, and the final 12 games on Saturday will be confined to 48 qualifiers on squads at 2 and 8 p.m.

The tournament is the final stop on the first coast-to-coast tour arranged by the PBA and the lineup of Bowl-O-Drome participants include the winners of five previous championships events at New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Nevada, and Northern California.

Money Winners
Also entered are nine of the 10 leading money winners on the gold trail. The individual leader is Tom Hennessey of St. Louis, the National Invitational champion at Las Vegas, Nevada, who has earned $7050.

Second biggest winner is Don Carter, Hennessey's National doubles and Budweiser team partner, who has collected $6050.

Among other likely favorites for the $3000 Bowl-O-Drome first prize is slender Harry Smith of the St. Louis Falstaffs, the current National All-Star champion.

Principal challengers come from Missouri (13), Michigan (10), Illinois (7), Texas (7), Arizona (5), Washington (4), Pennsylvania (3), and one each from Oregon, Utah, Florida, New York, Kansas, Louisiana, and Minnesota.

Cal Keglers
California will be represented by a total of 96 bowlers, 67 from the southland and 29 from the bay area.

The local contingent is headed by Andy Marzich of Inglewood, Loy Countryman of Glendale, Carl Winfield of Hollywood, Jack Heydeman of Hollywood and 19-year-old Ron Winger of Van Nuys, the members of the mythical Southern California 1959-60 season all-star team.

Following is the schedule and squad assignments for today:

OUTDOORS WITH MEL

BY MEL SALTZMAN

Just heard of a good trip and thought that I should pass on the information to you. Jack Rood, Glen Sudmeyer, and Jacks Dad, rented a skiff at Redondo. Using their own outboard (they don't rent motors) they headed out toward Rocky Point. They were trying the new Reddy Jigs in the small size. They dropped the anchor near Rocky and started to throw jigs and soon were hooked up on almost every cast. The baracuda averaged about 6 pounds and there were some bonito and bass also hitting on the jigs. After awhile the fish stopped hitting and they pulled anchor and moved off the chum line of the Sea Hawk. Using the same jigs they hooked up Baracuda after Baracuda and finally Glen hooked and landed a yellowtail of about 9 pounds. Everybody had limits of baracuda and they estimated that they had landed and released about 30 fish each. This is lots of fun for very little money so why not give it a try.

The albacore have moved on so we now have to wait for another school to move in. The signs point to a short-run because the fish were big in the original school which is a sign that there were small fish that went by unnoticed.

The new Hunting Licenses are out now and are available at all sporting goods stores. Remember that any youngster under the age of 16 must have a junior hunting license and unless they had a license last year they must go thru the hunters training course which is available thru the Torrance Elks Club. If they had a license last year they need only bring it in to the store and get a new one for $1. If your interested in seasons etc. stop in at Sportsville U.S.A. or call Mel at FAirfax 8-2173.
