

DOG-GONED FUNNY—Fred MacMurray and Jean Hagen star in the funniest adventure ever in "Shaggy Dog," which plays with "Little Savage," a raw story marking the life of a pirate. These motion pictures are playing tonight, tomorrow night and Saturday at the Radium Drive-in, on Redondo Beach Blvd. and Crenshaw.

PAAR'S TRI-PARTITE PARTY—Jack Paar, Hugh Downs and Jose Melis (left to right) blow out candles to celebrate the third anniversary of "The Jack Paar Show." Paar (as star and host), Downs (as announcer) and Melis (as musical director) have been with the Monday-through-Friday late-night NBC-TV Network series since its premiere July 29, 1957.

Casino Features Gary Crosby

Gary Crosby, handsome eldest son of Bing, is the star attraction this week at Avalon's Casino, Catalina Island. Crosby closes his five-night run tomorrow. He will be backed up by Eddie Grady and his dance-recording orchestra, featuring songstress Aura San Juan and her throaty, torchy song routines. Crosby's new act, which he broke-in at the Casino during Convention Week, was specially written for him by Oscar-winning songwriters Sammy Cahn and Jimmy Van Heusen. Originally starred in a comedy singing routine with his three younger brothers, Gary was forced into temporary retirement when stricken with a throat ailment.
