I Tel-You

By Willie Tellam

It's easy 't'be a tellvisun star 'w' you're willin' t'burst your pants. An' your ticker, t'boot. Frinstance, look at this here feller David McLean. He's the star of "Tate." That's a rootin' tootin' Western with less shootin' off the mouth an' more with the gun. It's made for that there NBC Tellyvisun Network by an outfit called Roncom. They do tell me that the feller who owns that outfit wuz a real good barber before tellvisun. Name of Perry Como.

Anyways, all you have t'do 't'be a star like this here McLean feller is wait 16 years for what them there show folks call 'the big break.' Then they stuff your arm in a big black glove an' say: "Don't move a finger when we take pictures." Then they say: "Go an' practice."

You get on a horse. With one hand, you ride quite a piece, mebbe, where nobody's aroun' for five miles. Then you practice gettin' in the horse an' gettin' on again the whole livelong day. With one hand.
