

Ink Spots Open Long Stay at Famed Spot

Featuring tunes that vibrate in the memory and touch the heart, The Ink Spots, renowned stars of song and rhythm, have opened in their initial engagement at Marineland Restaurant on the Palos Verdes peninsula.

The Ink Spots, whose honey-sweet singing style was launched in 1939 with "If I Didn't Care" and "It's Funny To Everyone But Me," are signing for a four-week appearance in the "Porpoise Room." The sound of their voices is as familiar in the American home as the sound of rain on the roof. Their famous "talking choruses," which are so closely identified with the group, have made them great international favorites.

Apart from their inimitable style, sensitive interpretations of ineffably smooth and mellow ballads, The Ink Spots also entertain instrumentally at Marineland Restaurant, assuring an unforgettable musical treat in the "Porpoise Room" through Aug. 21.

AUDIE MURPHY, FELICIA FARR star in western fare, "Hell Bent for Leather," screening at Roadview Drive-in theater today through Saturday. Gangster show, "The Rise and Fall of Legs Diamond," with Ray Danton, is companion feature.

Polynesian's Reitz Guide Hawaii Tour

Reservations are now being taken at The Polynesian in Torrance for its third annual "Aloha Week Tour to Hawaii," which begins from the tropical restaurant Oct. 16.

The tour party will travel round-trip via United Airlines jet-flight, and the nine-day excursion coincides with the gayest holiday of the year in Hawaii, the traditional festivities of "Aloha Week."

The fun-packed trip will be personally conducted by Pete Reitz, manager of The Polynesian Restaurant, who has arranged for an Hawaiian trio, Harry Baty's "Polynesians," to accompany the tour to Honolulu and while in the Islands.

Hotel reservations at the Hawaiian Village, beach parties, round-the-island tour, a Pearl Harbor cruise, a private luau, a pre-aloha party at The Polynesian and other surprise features comprise the exciting tour package. The all-inclusive price is $425.

'South Pacific' Auditions Open

Auditions for roles in the Long Beach Civic Light Opera Association production of "South Pacific," presented in October, are slated Sunday, July 31, from 2 to 6 and 7:30 to 10 p.m.; and Monday, Aug. 1, from 7:30 to 10 p.m., at the Dance Drama Center, 518 E. 4th St.

Amateurs have been invited to participate in the auditions. This production follows the recent presentation of "Plain and Fancy" by the group.

"South Pacific," by Rodgers and Hammerstein, is one of the most popular musicals ever written. Its score includes hit tunes as "Some Enchanted Evening," "This

'Unearthly' Show Presents Thrills

Thrills and chills are in store for Channel 9 Movie viewers Aug. 8-14 when KHI-TV presents "Unearthly," starring John Carradine as Professor Charles Conway.

The story centers around Carradine's efforts to create the perfect man—in strength—mentality and never ending youth.

His plan is to transplant the brain of an escaped convict into the skull of the giant he has created.

Nearly was Mine," "There's Nothin' Like a Dame," "Younger Than Spring Time," and many others.

'Sneak Preview' Introduces New Viewing Concept

"Sneak Preview," an entirely new concept in movie viewing, will be introduced Friday, Aug. 5 at 7:30 p.m. on Channel 9.

The new show, running 90-minutes, has all the glamour and suspense of typical sneak previews.

The movie scheduled to be telecast during the program each week will be a first run, never before seen on Los Angeles TV. The station will not play the movie again for at least six months.

The schedule for "Sneak Preview" is as closely a guarded secret as Horace Stomman's choice for next year's Giants' manager. Only two people in the station will know which movie will be presented each week.

The movies will be drawn from the major movie packages owned by Channel 9. These include Warner Bros., RKO-Pictures, Universal International, Columbia, and Allied Artists. Among this group, many of the pictures are post-1950 products.
