

NLL All-Star Team Named; 3 Returnees

Three returning members of last year's Torrance National Little League team will bolster the NLL All-Stars this year, as they undertake the series of play-offs that eventually lead to a berth in the Little League World Series at Williamsport, Pa. for the nation's two top teams. First round play began yesterday.

Gary Fulton of the Harvey Aluminum Braves, Lou Maynard of the Rubbercraft Cardinals and Larry Snyder of the Dandoy Glass Yankees are the three "veterans" on the squad managed by Sam Snyder of the Yanks and coached by Andy Anderson of the Cards.

The Braves, Cards and Yankees dominated the selections with three men each on the newly named squad.

Fulton, Rodney Lorenzen and Ricky Moton were picked to the All-Star club from the Braves, Jim Malone, Maynard and Richard Thompson of the Cards were chosen, while Gene Cusson, Jim Hartley and Snyder of the champion Yankees made the squad.

The Optimist Club Cubs had two men named to the team, as did Paul's Construction Phillies.

Sam Intermill and Rodney Kendall were selected from the Cubs, while Jon Chaykowski and Steve Horton were the pair picked from the Phillies.

Also named to the squad was Danny Kling of the California Bank Stars.

Mickey Fornelli of the Phils and Jim Sonju of the Stars were selected as alternates.

Spahn Sparkles; 'Finished' Hurler Far from Through

By Gary Palmer

They said he was "finished" in '58. They called him "through" in '59. And again in '60 they labeled him "washed up."

But Warren Spahn, the mainstay of the Milwaukee mound corps continues to make liars of the "experts" who, as early as 1956 began to speculate that the veteran lefty was near the end of the line.

Last week, the 39-year-old southpaw turned in win No. 10 on the year—a neat seven hit blank job over the high-riding St. Louis Cardinals.

20-Game Winner

With 10 20-game win seasons behind him, the hawk-nosed lefty was again within hailing distance of the magic number as the season passed the half-way point.

A slow start in '60 by Spahn had the experts patting themselves on the back. After all, it appeared they were right for the first time in five years. But the Milwaukee ace, always a slow starter, who hits his stride in the hot weather of July, August and September, began to find the mark several weeks ago.

Blanks Phils

"Spahn," turned in his first whitewash of the season, and 48th of an illustrious career, July 7 when he blanked the Phillies, 2-0, while recording 10 strikeouts. The win was another milestone in Spahn's record book.

He became the 15th hurler in major league history to post 275 victories. Early Wynn, the 40-year-old veteran of the Chicago White Sox had chalked up No. 275 11 days earlier. Wynn, however, in his 18th major league campaign while Spahn is in his 15th season.

Another Milestone

The Milwaukee moundsman continued to improve after the Philly shutout, reaching the 2000 strikeout mark two games later.

He followed with the shutout against St. Louis, his 49th, and once again it appeared the dean of the Milwaukee pitching staff was back on the beam and headed toward another 20-game season.
