hospital shows and luau's. She is a pupil of Napua. Monday night, Leanna's dances programmed for the admission free Los Angeles Bureau of Music sing, will vary from the slow hula, "Beyond the Reef," to a Samoan knife dance, accompanied by exciting drum beats.

Others to appear in the sing show, are Molly Lowe, ballet and tap dancer, from Paramount; Torrance song stylist Jo Marrelli, of 5528 Michelle Drive; and Sonny Dunne, from Hollywood, who calls himself "World's Worst Singer."

Sing chairman Marian M. Wahl will "femcee" the stage show. Activities of the musical evening will start at 7:30 p.m., with 60 minutes of informal harmonizing led by Mark Cook, professional tenor, and accompanied by professional pianist Marie Golden. "Sing officials invite families to attend with neighbors and friends, followed by outstanding stage entertainment," spokesman for the event said.

Repeat Murder Threat

Jane Powell and John Baragrey are co-starring in "Fix a Frame for Mourning," a drama about a widow terrified by threatening letters, on "Gas Company Playhouse" Tuesday, Aug. 2. Mrs. Cabot (Miss Powell) seeks help from her attorney, Jeff Chafon (Baragrey), when she receives letters threatening the "death" of her husband, who had drowned a year previously.

DISTRICT OFFICERS—Planning another busy year, Torrance women represent the Marina District 18 of California Federation of Women's Clubs. They are (left to right) Mrs. R.

E. Moffitt, scholarships; Mrs. Roy J. Apsey, Torrance Woman's Club; and Mrs. Harry Smack, Indian affairs.

Marina Council Names Torrance Women Officers

Five Torrance women will serve on the Marina District 18 of the California Federation of Women's Clubs, four serving in the capacity of chairman, and one representing the Torrance Woman's Club.

The chairman are Mrs. Harry Smack, Indian affairs; Mrs. R. E. Moffitt, scholarships; Mrs. John W. Thuss, conservation; and Mrs. Lee A. McCoy, credentials. Mrs. Toy J. Apsey will represent the Torrance Woman's Club.

Civic Betterment Group Plans Park

Plans for the development of the Carson Neighborhood Park will be the main topic for discussion at the next meeting of the Carson Civic Betterment Association.

E. J. Benda, Chairman of the park committee, has announced that Ronald Page has been assigned to represent the Los Angeles County Park and Recreational Department, to give the plans of the department and to discuss the wishes of residents of this area as to future development of the Carson park.

The meeting of the CCBA will be held at the Carson Branch Library, 22102 S. Main St., Tuesday Aug. 9, at 7:30 p.m. It will be open to the public.

As time will permit, there will be an open discussion about the proposed move for incorporation to cityhood. More information will be available, and residents will be permitted to express their opinions, it was mentioned.

Torrance City of Hope Meets

The Torrance Chapter of City of Hope will meet at the home of Mrs. Jerome Scharfman, 21101 Madrona, Aug. 8, at 12:30 p.m.

A luncheon will be hosted by Mrs. Scharfman, Mrs. Kay Rosen, Mrs. Celia Mandel, and Mrs. Melvin Schumacker. "We welcome new members to all our meetings," Mrs. S. D. Young, member, stated. She continued that information about the local chapter is available by calling her at FR 5-7879

Minister Leaves For Convention, European Visit

The Rev. and Mrs. H. Milton Sippel departed from Torrance Monday for Edinburgh, Scotland. The Rev. Sippel is minister of the First Christian Church of Torrance.

The Christian Churches gather in a world assembly every five years. The last meeting was held in Toronto, Canada, in 1955. Following the convention, the Sippels will spend their vacation in Europe, visiting many of the larger cities and attending the Passion Play in Oberammergau. During Mr. Sippel's absence, the Rev. Odell Myers, director of youth activities at the local church, will conduct church services. The Sippels will return to Torrance Sept. 10.
