Open Key Real Estate Office
 Opening of the new Key Real Estate Company, at 2678 Pacific Coast Hwy. and Crenshaw Blvd., by two businesswomen, June Hansley and Marjorie Krogmann, was announced today.
 Well known realtors in the South Bay for the past four years, the two women have a staff of five local real estate specialists to serve the buying and selling public. Located at the "gateway to the hills," according to Miss Hansley, the owners chose the name "Key Real Estate" for their company, for "a home of your own offers a key to better living," Miss Hansley said.

Serra High Announces Staff Additions

Under a new administration and with the largest enrollment in its history, Junipero Serra High School begins its second decade Tuesday, Sept. 6, 1960.
 Brother Frank Spaeth, S.M., the newly-appointed principal, anticipates a student body of 650. Other administrative appointments include Brother Jorge da Silva, S.M., as vice principal and Father John Rielly, S.M., as chaplain. Brother da Silva, former moderator of the student services and guidance programs, has been active in the school's administration for several years.
 Both Brother Joseph Hoffman, S.M., and Brother Jerome Gorg, S.M., principal and vice principal during the past four years, have been assigned to Hawaii. Brother Hoffman will serve as director of the Marianist Scholasticate at Chaminade College while Brother Gorg takes over the physics department at St. Louis High School in Honolulu. Father John Bolin, S.M., has been appointed assistant to the Provincial of the Pacific Province of the Society of Mary.
 In addition to Brother Spaeth, five Marianists and three laymen have joined the Serra faculty. Father Walter Bach, S.M., returns to Serra from St. Joseph's High School, Alameda. A 1954 graduate, Brother Charles Devine, S.M., Brother Richard Britin, S.M., Brother Eugene Frank, S.M., and Mr. Frank Camboa will be teaching in the language and mathematics departments.
 New faces in the athletic department at Serra are Brother James McGloin, S.M., athletic moderator, Thomas Carroll, assistant varsity football coach and jayvee baseball coach, and Robert Holland, jayvee football and track coach. Brother McGloin taught previously at Riordan High School in San Francisco.
 Physical improvements to the Serra campus during the summer months included preparation of the grounds for handball and tennis courts and the repainting of the junior and senior classrooms, the faculty residence, and the south wing.
