Greek Theater Presents Darin

Bobby Darin, singer, is the special guest star on the George Burns show which is expected to pack the Greek Theater during its six-night run, Wednesday through Monday, Aug. 10-15, including Sunday night.

Darin's personality is displayed in the act Burns has devised especially for the Greek Theater. Using his recent hit in Las Vegas as a basis, George is bringing the "Chordettes" ("Mr. Sandman") as well as the Eber Lobato Dancers, with Nelida, direct from the Argentine, and the infectious tapping Steiner Brothers.

The concluding portion of the theater's novel Ballet Festival of Two Continents follows with the arrival of the Royal Danish Ballet from Copenhagen for 15 performances beginning Thursday, Aug. 18. The company of 130 has been in existence over 300 years and will dance the oldest ballet and novelties created for the famous troupe.
