

Republican Women Hold 'Open House'

A "Membership Drive" Open House" at the Republican Campaign Headquarters, 1204 S. Pacific, Redondo Beach, has been scheduled for Aug. 18 from 1 to 3 p.m. by

The South Bay Club of Federated Republican Women.

Official hostesses for the occasion are Mrs. John Bowler of Long Beach, a member of the Executive Board of the L.A. County Federation of Republican Women and member of the Republican Central Committee, 18th Congressional District; Mrs. Donald A. Solberg of Redondo Beach, the club president; and Mrs. Louis P. Dionysius of Manhattan Beach, membership chairman. The Club's Board members will assist as hostesses.

Mrs. Raoul J. Collette, Mrs. Grace E. Moll and Mrs. C. H. Swain are in charge of decorations. Mrs. Donald L. Young will be assisted by Mrs. Lynn Nichols and Mrs. Martin Klano on the refreshments committee.

Tom Coffee, Republican candidate for Congress from the 17th District, Los Angeles, and Assemblyman Charles Edward Chapel, candidate for reelection in the 46th Los Angeles Assembly District, have accepted invitations to attend and will greet members and guests.

The "Open House" is being sponsored as part of a membership drive by the South Bay group. All Republican women in the area are invited. Every member of the club is asked to bring prospective members. The various activities of the club will be discussed and the campaign work being carried on at the headquarters will be explained.

The South Bay Club of Federated Republican Women meets at noon on the 2nd Thursday of every month. Meetings presently are being held at the Fish Shanty, 4020 Pacific Coast Highway, Waverly. Objectives of the club are to promote a wider knowledge of the principles and policies of the Republican party and to cooperate with the Republican State and County committees for the election of Republican candidates for office.

Mrs. Helen Darby, member of the L.A. County Republican Committee and Precinct Chairman of the Club, is in charge of the Redondo Headquarters. Mrs. Darby says that the Club members are active in all phases of campaign work, but that volunteers still are urgently needed.

YW Announces New President

Presiding over the first meeting of the newly elected Board of Directors of the Harbor Area YWCA, Dr. Frances Clark, new prexy, was head of the session Wednesday, Sep. 14, at the headquarters building.

As a "YW" volunteer, she has served on the San Pedro Branch Administrative committee, been chairman of the Public Affairs committee, served on the board as area membership chairman, headed two membership drives, been chairman of the structure study committee and been first vice-president of the area board.

Volunteering in the YWCA was not her first contact, however, as she lived in the local YW residence in 1921 and 1922.

A native of Nebraska, Dr. Clark completed high school in San Jose and went on to receive her A.B. degree from Stanford University. Later she received a Ph.D. from the University of Michigan. She was employed by the California

Pair Exchange Vows in Catholic Setting

Wedding bells rang for Nancy Dowd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dowd, 26208 Oak St., as she became the bride of Thomas Corwin, son of Mrs. E. R. Corwin, 428 Harbor Hill, Lomita, at an 8 a.m. ceremony Aug. 6.

The bride, wearing a full length gown of white, carried a white orchid corsage centered in a bouquet of white carnations. White satin ribbons and love birds highlighted the corsage.

Father of the bride gave her away in marriage at the double ring ceremony at the St. Margaret Mary Church with Father John V. Hegarty officiating. Miss Dowd was attended by Barbara Dowd, maid of honor, and Catherine Fitzgerald and Dolores Paluch, bridesmaids. Vicki Williams was flower girl with David Linneberger, ring bearer. Standing up for the groom was Richard Madden, best man, and Lee Wood and Dick Corwin, ushers. The new Mrs. Corwin is a 1960 graduate of Narbonne High School. The groom, now in the United States Marine Corps, attended St. Anthony's High School.
