

CARTWRIGHTS CORRALLED—The stars of NBC-produced "Bonanza" color film series are a frolicky foursome as they get set for their second season of adventures on the full-hour colorcasts which start on the NBC-TV network Saturday, Sept. 10. The group which portrays the members of the Cartwright family—three half-brothers and their father—are (left to right) Lorne Green as Ben, the father, Dan Blocker as Hoss, Michael Landon as Little Joe and Pernell Roberts as Adam.

ENCORE FOR "ANDROID"—Rip Torn (at right) portrays a mechanical man and Kevin McCarthy and Sonno Osato play his keepers, in Alfred Bester's science-fiction colorcast drama, "Murder and the Android," which the NBC-TV network will repeat Monday, Sept. 5. The drama is the story of a "man of the future" who inherits an android from his father, then loses control when the mechanical man develops a mind of his own.

What's Ahead on Fall TV

George Grizzard stars as a junior executive who commits blunders that project him into a tragedy, in "The Twisted Image," premiere drama on the NBC-TV Network's full-hour Tuesday night "Thriller" series Sept. 13. Boris Karloff is host of the series. Hubbell Robinson is executive producer. Co-starred with Grizzard on the "Thriller" premiere are Natalie Trundy, Leslie Nielsen and Diane Foster.

Jan Murray returns to the NBC-TV Network Sept. 5 as star and host of his own Monday-through-Friday afternoon colorcast series. On the new "Jan Murray Show" the comedian will chat with contestants before they play a fast-paced word-building game for valuable prizes.

Rex Harrison and Tammy Grimes play an engaged couple who accidentally become involved in the theft of $1,000,000 worth of gems in "The Datchet Diamonds." This play will be telecast Friday, Sept. 9, the first of nine special mystery programs on "The Dow Hour of Great Mysteries" over the NBC-TV Network.

CLASH IN WEST—Barry Sullivan (left) and Clu Gulager will co-star in the new NBC-TV series, "Tall Man," Saturday evenings starting Sept. 10. Sullivan plays lawyer Pe' F. and Gulager plays Billy the Kid. The two are friends who gradually drift apart on opposite sides of the law.

UNITED STATES STEEL HOUR—A hasty ceremony and a borrowed wedding ring unite Richard Kiley, as a Confederate soldier-spy, and Ina Balin, in marriage, just before Union troops discover their whereabouts, during rehearsals for "Bride of the Fox." The "live" U. S. Steel Hour drama, based on a true Civil War incident, will be seen on Wednesday, Aug. 24, at 10 p.m., via Channel 2.

Those Brown boys—Jimmy and Paul and a flock of hungry Cleveland Browns will be romping on the greensward of the Los Angeles Coliseum this Saturday evening when they collide with the Bob Waterfield-coached lads of Los Angeles and the affair should prove to be one of the most interesting pre-season National Football League contests on slate this season. As usual, the stellar stalwarts of the Los Angeles Rams Radio Network, Bob Kelley, Steve Bailey, and Bill Brundige will be at their microphones to voice all the exciting action as it unfolds.
