Circus Troop Comes to City

Coming to town on its own all-steel railroad train, loaded with new wonders from many lands, the world's largest circus will exhibit afternoons and evenings in the Los Angeles Sports Arena starting Sept. 7 and continuing through the 18th.

Performances begin weekdays at 3:30 p.m., matinee, and 8 p.m., evening performance.

Saturday and Sunday mainees are scheduled for 2:30 p.m. and the evening performances Sunday nights at 6:30 p.m. The box office at the Sports Arena is receiving mail orders now.

"Horse lovers the country over will lean forward in their seats at performances of the show when the gay equestrian display of the Ringling Bros. and Barnum Bailey Circus fills the rings and hippodrome track and the pretty girl riders are not the attraction," spokesman for the show said.

It's the horses, the sleek, lithe, Kentucky-bred beauties, "with the look of the conqueror in their eyes," he continued.

"This year's dashing, colorful, racing, Blue Grass superpageant provides a magnificent setting for the splendid dressage and liberty horses," it was promised.

Local Guessers Strike It Rich

Copping the two top awards in the Gold Rush Contest at Bank of America's newly opened Main and Carson Branch, Melford L. Hunter, 1052 W. 212th St., and Lucy Park, 750 E. Carson St., were among the seven Torrance winners.

Manager Richard E, Ogle announced the results of the two-week long contest in which visitors to the new branch were asked to guess the number of gold coins in-
