

J.A. Executives Attend Confab

Sixteen-age business executives, representing 94 southland Junior Achievement Companies and 1,350 Achievers, left Los Angeles International Airport Aug. 21 for the 17th Annual Junior Achievement Management Conference at the University of Indiana in Bloomington.

At the conference they joined over 1,000 other Achievers from 261 communities in the United States and Canada. The young tycoons represent 70,000 fellow teenagers who owned and operated 3,984 JA companies last year.

business program which teaches teen-agers about the American private enterprise system by giving them the opportunity to actually organize and operate miniature "corporations" of their own. Junior Achievement companies sell stock, buy raw materials, pay wages, manufacture and sell a product, publish an annual report to their stockholders, and pay taxes and dividends out of profits.

Church Continues Building Project

Three buildings are under construction at the Beach Blvd. site, Mrs. recently in different stages of completion for the school recently. She added that all men of the church and Sunday school are invited to help construct these buildings at the work parties held each Tuesday and Thursday evenings and Saturday. Dinner is served at 6 p.m. during evening work sessions and at noon Saturdays by women of the church. Worship services is held each Sunday at 10:15 a.m. Dr. and Mrs. Murray Jones will return from their vacation, with Dr. Jones resuming his place at the pulpit.

Sunday. Even though construction continues on the new educational buildings, there is still ample parking for those attending the worship service Mrs. Hoffman said. Nursery care is provided in the fire side room during the service. Church school is held each Sunday at 1842 Gardena Blvd. from 8:45 to 9:45 a.m. All classes except the senior high and adult Bible class meet at the site. These two classes meet at the church.
