

Couple Recites Vows in Candlelit Church

Taking the arm of her uncle, Miss Vernice Ennis came down the aisle to be given away in marriage to Donald Eugene Johnson Aug. 12.

The bride is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Westal of Long Beach. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tarvin F. Johnson, 2621 Martha, Torrance.

The ceremony was held at the East Long Beach Methodist Church as the vows were said by candlelight.

The bride was attired in Chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta. The fitted bodice had a scalloped sweetheart neckline and long sleeves.

A peplum of lace fell over the back of the full tulle skirt forming a train. A cap-shaped pearl tiara held a lace-edge illusion veil. The bride carried a bouquet of white carnations with a white orchid in the center.

Bridesmaids were Miss Lavinne Westal and Mrs. Carol Johnson, who appeared in ballerina length dresses of aqua-blue nylon over taffeta. They carried small white parasols filled with yellow rosebuds.

Standing up for the bride as maid of honor was Miss Kay Westal, cousin. She was gowned in a blue flowered taffeta, wearing a white picture hat. She also carried a small white parasol filled with yellow rosebuds.

Serving as best man was the bridegroom's twin brother, Ronald Ernest Johnson, Jacques L. Johnson and Robert F. Johnson attended the bridegroom by acting as ushers and lighting candles.

Miss Anne Blowers, at the organ, accompanied Mrs. Jim McNabb, cousin to the bride, as she sang "I Love Thee" and "Because."

Officiating at the ceremony was the Rev. Francis B. Baldwin.

The 200 wedding guests were entertained at a reception following at the church hall. Hostesses for the reception were Mrs. Jacque L. Johnson and Mrs. Robert F. Johnson.

Mrs. Westal greeted guests in an autumn brown suit of silk with beige accessories. Mrs. Johnson wore a flowered green nylon over taffeta dress.

A three-tier wedding cake centered the bride's table at the reception. Assisting at the event were Mrs. Lucille Johnson and Mrs. Delores Johnson.

Misses Robbin Janine, Robin Lynn and Sherry Johnson passed out small packages of rice which they carried in their white decorated baskets. Mrs. Robert Smith presided at the guest book.

Nature Improvement Adds Zest to Life, Says Housewife

By Hannah Sampson

I think I read somewhere that when the moguls of Hollywood photograph scenery, they first improve upon nature by painting the grass greener, the tree trunks tree-trunkier, and so on.

I like to improve upon nature in my own way. So when, for example, I bake a yellow cake, I add yellow food coloring and a yellow cake it is.

This works wonders with sponge cake, which is really just a sweet omelet anyway. To most appreciators, the true test of a good sponge cake, besides how light it is, is how yellow it is.

Remember how unappetizing margarine used to be when it came to us in a white rectangle which needed to be colored with the little yellow tablet?

Eye appeal is more than half the battle. So the rhubarb is made rosier, lemonade is made pink, and to the french toast batter, a few drops of yellow causes, of all things, a browner crust.

So much for food. But what about people? My Aunt Beth used to say, "Color improves a woman. I brown up my cheeks, and while your Uncle says he doesn't like me to do it, he always asks whether I'm feeling ill when I forget to add a little color."

So, a little red in the rhubarb, and a little pink in the cheeks give a bit of subtle assistance to Ma Nature, who, as far as I am concerned, can use a little assistance!
