New and Old Faces on View Next Year at Coliseum

It is safe to assume that the Dodgers are not going to win the pennant this year, unless, of course, the league leaders were to lose every game from here on through the end of the season. In all justification, however, the Dodgers will win as many games as they did last year. It just happens that the Pirates from Pittsburgh have come up with a contingent that wins more games and is so much better than its competition.

It's too late now to go over the reasons (and many of them would be second-guessing) why the Bums were not able to keep pace with the Steel City. But when the Dodgers return to the Coliseum next year a couple of old faces will return to the line-up along with several new ones. Some of the present Dodgers will not be with the 1959 world champions.

Fairly and Churn Back

During the pennant winning season last year, an ex-Trojan saw limited service. Left-hand swinging Ron Fairly had come to the Dodgers as a bonus baby. In his few appearances at bat he did little to distinguish himself except perhaps be capable of hitting the long ball. In spring training, the few days alloted to him after he finished his hitch with the Army prior to the start of the 1960 baseball season, Ron didn't fare too well. Bavasi and company shipped him to Spokane to get him back in shape.

With the season almost at end up north, Fairly has managed to come up with a consistent .320 average and amaze Dodger brass. All the kid really needed was to play regularly (ain't it the truth about any player, Dodger lovers).

From what I have been able to determine, from observations and talks with Bavasi and O'Malley, Ron will be back in a Dodger uniform in 1961. In all probability he will replace Chuck Essegian. The latter will go to Spokane er be sold outright to another major league team.

Used primarily as a reliefer during the latter part of 1959, Chuck Churn has also been doing quite well at Spokane. Pitching coach Joe Becker states that Chuck is capable of becoming another Ed Roebuck. He'll replace Danny McDevit. The latter is not happy with the Dodgers. From a conversation overheard last week, when the Braves were in town, between the little southpaw and Brave manager Chuck Dressen, a deal will be made in the winter to ship Danny to Milwaukee,

Another Davis Will Try-out

There is another fellow by the name of Davis up at Spokane with the front name of Willie. Like Tommy, he hits the long ball and has amassed a nice average with the Dodger farm club. He will definitely be on the 1961 roster.

It is my belief that Tommy Davis will be switched to third base and Jim Gilliam will be used as a utility infielder. Lillis will not be with the Dodgers and Willie will play in the outfield. Gilliam is not the player he was last year and he might be used as trade bait along with the tiredlooking Charley Neal.

Hodges Will Coach at Third

It looks as if Gil Hodges has reached the end of his playing days. With Norm Larker powdering the horsehide to all outfields and a threat to capture the batting title, Gil is no longer needed as a player. It's my guess that Hodges will replace Bobby Bragan, the latter a good bet to take over the managerial position at San Francisco.

When last I talked to Gil, I learned that he was resolved to the thought that he might not be with the Dodgers in '61. Frank Howard, who can play first base, is another reason why the Dodgers can do without the ole pro.

Other players that might be singled out to play somewhere else are, Ed Palmquist, Norm Sherry, Joe Pignatano, and Johnny Roseboro. The team may trade Neal or Gilliam for a first line catcher, that's why I include all the

"JACKPOT BOWLING"-Milton Berle returns to television on a regular basis as master of ceremonies of the NBC-TV network's new Monday night entertainment-sports series. The halfhour "Jackpot Bowling" program will present the nation's top bowlers in head-to-head competition for strikes in two nineball matches weekly. Berle will make all introductions. Contenders in the preliminary match, all of which will be televised live, will be awarded $5000 for six straight strikes, plus another $1000 for the player scoring the most strikes in nine rolls. The winner meets the previous week's champion in the second match, called "King of the Hill," which features a jackpot starting at $25,000. A contender could win as much as $100,000 on the

Midgets Go at Ascot

A three-heat Monza-style main event will climax the United Racing Assn.'s Southwest Championship auto race Saturday night, Sept. 3, at Ascot Stadium.

Starting at 8:30 p.m., the program will feature 24 cars battling in the three 20-lap sections of the nightcap.

At the end of the first and second heats, the cars will be halted, then re-started in reverse order to their running positions at that point. The winner will be determined on a point system based on the best finishes in all three heats.

Preliminary heats will cut the expected entry of about 45 Offenhauser and Ford-engined racers to the fastest 24 for the windup. Qualifying will open at 7 at the half-mile clay track at Vermont Ave. and 182nd St. in the Torrance area.

Top threats should come from Lloyd Corbin of Anaheim, Don Cameron of La Mirada, Allen Heath of Torrance Youths Northridge, Dick Barry Covina, Clay Robbins of North Hollywood and Buddy Lee of Duarte.
