

What's New on Fall Television

MISS AMERICA PAGEANT—Bert Parks and Lynda Lee Mead, this year's Miss America, will be on hand as Channel 2 televises events from Atlantic City, Saturday at 10 p.m.

FIVE SPECIAL PEOPLE—Top stars will present many special programs on the NBC-TV network during the 1960-61 season. Already scheduled for one or more full-hour music-comedy-variety presentations each are (clockwise, from upper left) the star and host of "Jerry Lewis Show" programs; multi-Emmy Award winner Fred Astaire, whose "Astaire Time" colorcast Wednesday, Sept. 28, will be his third NBC-TV song and dance presentation; the veteran emcee who will preside over a succession of "Bob Hope Elvick Show" programs; actor-singer-comedian Donald O'Connor, who will star in his own special on Tuesday, Oct. 11, and Dino, singing star of several "Dean Martin Show" presentations for the new season. Numerous other specials are spotted through each week's schedule on NBC-TV.

"MICHAEL SHAYNE"—The full-hour filmed mystery series—based on the detective novels of Brett Halliday and starring Richard Denning in the title role of the dangerous-living Shayne, premieres as an NBC-TV Network Friday night entry. Co-stars of the new "Michael Shayne" series include Patricia Donahue as Shayne's secretary, Lucy; Jerry Paris, Herbert Rudley and Gary Clarke. Novelist Halliday will be story consultant for the series.

Producer-director Don Hyatt of NBC informs this corner that his show, "Project 20," will deal with the major events and fermenting forces that have acted upon 20th Century man. The program, which originated in 1954, will include in its series "The Coming of Christ," "The Real West," "The Story of Will Rogers," and "The Korean War." Hyatt's approach this fall will be from the dramatic to factual programming. No starting date for the series has been announced at this writing.

Using real locals, night clubs along Hollywood's famed "Strip Area" a new series debuts with Skip Homier in the lead. In "Dan Raven," Skip is a lieutenant of detectives in West Hollywood Sheriff's office. According to press releases from Channel 4, each episode will have a popular show business personality as guest star. The show is a full hour in length and will be seen on Friday nights.

BIRD OF PARADISE

Bird of Paradise is less tender than most people think, often standing several degrees of frost inland and thriving, too, in cool coastal gardens. A wise gardener, however, would give it some protection from frost in valley areas and plenty of sun near the coast, especially the north coast.

Tuberculosis Victims

Fifty-six new cases of tuberculosis were reported in the county during the week ending Aug. 13, bringing the total number of new TB cases reported thus far up to 1594 in 1960, it was announced today. Officials of the Tuberculosis and Health Association reported that, according to county health department figures, 67 new TB cases were reported for the same week in 1959 and that 1674 new cases were reported during the comparable period of Jan. 1 through Aug. 13, 1959.
