Only Saturday nights have been left open to the public, since all other showings are already sold out to local clubs, spokesman for the group said.

Noted Writer Offers Tips

"Making a Living as a Playwrite" was the subject of Leonard Freeman, guest speaker of the Southwest Manuscripters recently, at Clark Stadium, 861 Valley Dr., Hermosa Beach.

"There is no blueprint for success in writing," Mr. Freeman said. With a background that includes over ten years writing, producing and directing for major studios, (including his present position with Warner Brothers Studios) five nominations for the television "Emmy" and a past presidency of the Writers' Guild, he advised his audience, "The only common denominator among successful playwrights is—they all write and they all work hard at writing."

1. Finish what you start.
2. Don't be your own critic.
3. Write that which moves and excites you.
4. Listen only to yourself. ("If a writer is nothing else, he is a rebel.")
5. "If you want to write and believe you can write—do it. If you have an idea of significance and substance that you believe in, write it as you feel it. It may be your jackpot!"

Manville Chapman, president, announced the formation of three additional workshops for novels, short stories, and plays. Ramonita O'Connor announced the beginning of the new semester for her Creative Writing classes which will be Sept. 12, Redondo Union High School (Adult Education) at 9:30 a.m. and at Mira Costa High School at 7 p.m.

Pair Launches Ship for Torrance Boys

Launching a ship for boys from 14 and up, Donald Cook, skipper, and Paul Albright, first mate, sponsored the first meeting of a Torrance Ship recently.

The meetings, held every Thursday evening at 23313 Pennsylvania Ave., are presently being held on a "land ship." However, Albright mentioned, the group would be getting its seafaring ship soon.

At the initial get-together, featuring an hour swim previous to business, Carl Strouse was named boatswain, Alan Branson received the title as yeoman, and Bill Wassenberg was slated to be officer of the deck for the next meeting.

Others attending included Gordy Jones and David Hugaboom.

During this first meeting, the skipper and first mate discussed activities and social events planned for members.

Activities included are a regional rendezvous, monthly cruises, a long cruise, a Yacht Club project, civic projects, Christmas good turns, and the building of crew sail boats.

Socially, the group plans a recognition ball, to have a guest master, father and son dinner, and quarterly dances.
