YANKEES IN SIX OVER BUCS IN SERIES

In thirteen days all working baseball fans will play hooky by sneaking to some bar or home to watch the fall classic, the 1960 World Series. Some diamond-lovers will get caught and perhaps get the heave-ho but like always its a fever synonymous with October and heaven help the boss who hates baseball. He'll end up with an ulcer trying to get some of his personnel away from TV.

The Glendale superman has done it again! Casey Stengel, given an outside chance by the odds-makers, whipped high-flying Baltimore in a four game series last week-end and assured New Yorkers that the World Series will return to the big city.

With Bill Skowron the only Yankee over the magic .300, Stengel has taken a few veterans and some youngsters and parlayed it into a pennant. Maris, Mantle, and Berra have slugged homers when it counted the most and pitchers Ford, Terry, Dittmar, Coates, and the balance of the Yankee mound staff have come up with clutch pitching, although platooned Stengel style.

Listening to Yankee games this year via the radio route, you had to admire the way Casey handled a not-too-sharp pitching staff. In games the New Yorkers won by scores of 3-2, 2-1, 5-4, Stengel's list of pitchers would look as if the score might have been 10-9, 8-6, 7-5. By this we mean to imply that he wasted no time in yanking hurlers the moment an opposing batsman reached first or second. Most managers would wait and not make the walk to the mound as hurriedly as Stengel.

Yanks to Stay Hot

If you recall, last year the Dodgers got hot during the latter part of the year while the American League pennant winners, the White Sox had clinched it early. As a result the Dodgers carried their sharpness into the Series and won it.

Meanwhile the Pirates this year have been leading the league since almost the beginning of the season. At hardly any moment have the Dodgers, Braves, or Cards threatened. Vernon Law, Bob Friend, Haddix and Mizell have been winning in fashion slightly above their capabilities. Simply because the opposition has been poor. Not so with the Yankees. They have had to face tough competitors such as the Orioles and Sox. Therefore, it is our conclusion that the Yankees will go into the classic blazing and come up with the Series flag in six games. The two losses will be suffered at Pittsburgh, where the Pirates have managed to win steadily.

Not a sharpie when it comes to making decisions, I picked the Dodgers to repeat this year, I, nevertheless, feel more confident in my selection this season. After all the Yankees have a knack in winning World Series!

Scholastic Gridiron Fare Gets Start Friday Night

South Vs. Dominguez

By Joe Dixon

With Joe Austin and Bob Wehrhan, two sensational backs who won laurels last year in League play and topped positions on the Torrance Press All-American City Team, going for the Spartans, South High is expected to win its opener against Dominguez tomorrow night at Torrance Inga Stadium.

In preparation for this game, Tollefson has had his chargers working on defense and ground plays from the Wing-T offense. Coach Dave, who is in his fourth year at South, has expressed that his Spartans will be running instead of "passing so much" this year. Last year, prep fans thrilled to South's almost 50% average via the air lanes.

COACH TOLLEFSON

Perhaps one of the best signal-callers and passers in

North Vs. Warren

By Bruce Allyson

The North High Saxons, under Coach Bob Shoup, open their 1960 football schedule when they tackle Warren High from Downey at Saxon Stadium tomorrow night.

Baseball star Carey Hubert is expected to call the signals against an eleven that tied Shoup's footballers 6-6 last year. At other offensive backfield positions the Saxons hope to start Gary Wright or Felix Alviljar at slotback, Derrick Busch at full, and Ray Dohner at half.

COACH SHOUP

Earlier in the week, Shoup had his lads holding their first extensive workout, stressing contact and fundamentals.

Returning this year on the line is John Sibley, noted to the Torrance Press' All-American City Team last year. Also seeing duty will be the capable Gary Sexton.

Other linemen who have rated a nod by Shoup and expected to start are Pat Liningier, Skip Mooney, Ed Landwehr, Dick Bush, Paul Harmon and Bob Martin.

After the affair with Warren, North will draw a bye next week and come up against Inglewood in a Bay League encounter Oct. 7.

Rams by 7

The Los Angeles Rams have been installed seven point favorites over the St. Louis Cardinals at the Coliseum Friday night. This is the first league game for both professional outfits.

Purdue by 14

Although the Bruins from UCLA defeated Pittsburgh in a thriller last week, they have been ruled as two touchdown underdogs when they go against Purdue Saturday night in Indiana.

LET'S GO BOWLING With Darlene Cope

Gable House in Torrance is sponsoring its first ladies' scratch match traveling league. The name of this league is "Centinela Traveling League" and is represented by the following Torrance ladies: Margaret Denzer of 5449 Edgemere Dr.; Ann Elliott of 5614 Sunnyview St. Margaret is the team captain and carries a 165 average. Ann Elliott carries a 165 and Ann Hutton a 150. These girls bowled against Rose Lanes last week where Ann Elliott shot a 503 series and Margaret shot a 202 high game. They bowl against Holiday Bowl Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. There are fourteen houses these girls will visit this season—they include the following: Gable House, Rose Lanes, Holiday Bowl, Morningside Rec. Center, Hawthorne, Vermont, Paradise, 101 Bowl, Gardena and Cove.

Margaret Denzer

The secretary of the "Centinela Traveling League" is Marie Orcutt of Rose Lanes. The junior traveling league is now forming and these teens will bowl at Gable, Jefferson, Imperial, Windsor and South Bay. Last Saturday afternoon a terrific high game was rolled. Norm Belt, who was pacing in the Bowl-A-Round and using Don Gurnick's ball, rolled a 298. So far to date this is the highest score at Gable House.

Fanny Hill of the Board of Education League and Naka Minamoto of the Harbor City Nisje both picked up the Pinochle (4-6-7-10) split.

The first winter league sheets are in and I have noted the following league high games. The high games are credited to Roy Miese, 212; Joyce Crandel, 155; Joe Dumon, 234; Von Lorenzen, 146; Everett Hays, 212; Paul Lade, 197; Sherry Young, 188; Jean Hogue and Dorothy Tucker a 137.

We would all like to send best wishes to General Manager Jerry Home's wife, Ann, who recently came home from the hospital.

Monday night on Channel 4, KRCA, at 10:30 I watched the "Jackpot Bowling" from the Hollywood Lanes which starred Don Carter, bowler of the year; Ray Bluth, National Doubles Champion; Harry Smith, Champion. Milton Berle was M.C. and was, as usual, full of comedy. Many top Hollywood personalities were on hand for the premier.

The purpose of the match was if Don or Ray could roll six consecutive strikes from nine possible balls the winner would receive $5000. Neither bowler did but Don Carter defeated Ray Bluth by rolling six strikes over Ray's five, which took 11 balls. The winner won $1000 and then met Harry Smith.

The main event, which was for the "$25,000 Jackpot," had the same rules. But neither Don nor Harry got the honors; they tied each with five strikes. The show then ran out of time so Don and Harry will return next week.

50 OR OVER BOWL CLUB

Ruth Caudle, president of Fifty or Over Bowling Club, today announced plans to increase the membership of the organization. "We are welcoming all people over fifty who would like to bowl but hesitate because of fear and embarrassment," Mrs. Caudle said.

The prexy also stated that her group will teach the sport and make it real fun for them. To join the club prospective members are urged to call DA 9-9041 for all information.

Carrying slogans that read, "Stay Young, Stay Happy, Stay Healthy," the club participated in their first league games at the Palos Verdes Bowl last week. Hank Moritz, 70, bowled a 217, Jim Davey, somewhere in his sixties, bowled 218, 227, and 180 in a three game set.

FULL TREATMENT Some smooth tongued politicians are giving us the full treatment these days. After all, this is an election year.

50-Lap CRA Race Set at Ascot Sat.

A 50-lap Pacific Coast Championship main event—which is certain to lure the top drivers and equipment in the CRA big car western circuit—will top an all-action program Saturday night at Ascot Stadium.

Racing director Tom Haynes announced that each week new cars and new drivers are showing up at Ascot, which has made the Indianapolis type car sport one of the most popular in the Southland.

The 50-lapper will undoubtedly decide the 1960 driver championship. At present Donny Davis of Phoenix has a slight lead, but Northridge's one-arm phantom, the amazing Allen Heath is right on his tail and a victory here could change the standings.

Tartars Ready for Sea Hawks

By John Whitacre

Although most coaches, like Irwin Kasten of Torrance High, sing the ole "I haven't any material this year" song every year before the opening of the fall football season, the Tartars are rated a touchdown favorite to best inter-South Bay rival Redondo tomorrow night in Redondo Beach.

Bolstered by six returning lettermen; Howard Taylor, Don Dobrick, Jerry McLean, Mike Irvine, Tom Holdsworth and Cliff Weimer, the Tartars are impressed with Bruce Hendrix, who is trying to fill the mammoth vacancy created at guard with the graduation of Stan Gonta.

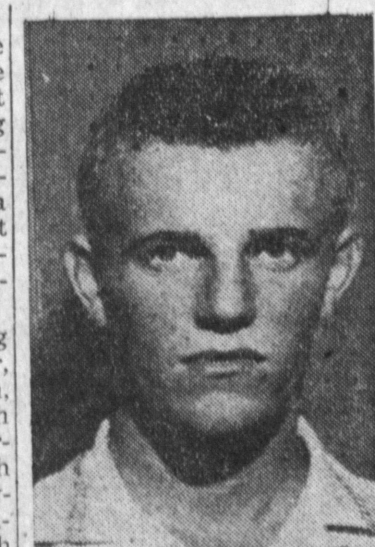

Scrimmaging with rivals South High last week and going through their fundamentals this week, Torrance High gridders received just minor injuries therefore assuring a full complement against Redondo tomorrow.

In his second year at Torrance High, Kasten will again refer to the slot "T" system, an offense almost used exclusively by the pros. Assisting is backfield coach Christensen who moved up from the "B" team. The latter was instrumental in leading the junior Tartars to a league championship and to an unbeaten season.

Several sophs and juniors will fill vacancies in the line. There are John Carlson, 200 pound tackle; Garlan Roberts, 260 pound middle guard; and Howard Ackenback, a six-foot five, 230 pound senior at tackle.

Kasten looks with admiration at the record of Steve Parker, who after scoring 14 touchdowns as a sophomore on the B team last year, sat out the balance of the season with a knee injury.

A crowd of 3,000 is anticipated for the THS-Redondo game.
