

Chamber Honors Baseball Champs

Torrance's Southern California boys baseball champions were feted at a Testimonial Steak Fry this week at Higgins Brickyard, under sponsorship of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce.

Chamber Youth and Sports Chairman Willys G. Blount, and City Councilman, presided at the affair held for the 15 members of the team that swept to the Southern California Championship last month. Other guests included fathers of the boys and Torrance City Councilmen.

The boys received awards from the Southern California

Municipal Association. A team trophy was presented to Chamber President R. S. Pyle by Manager Ambrose "Bo" Palica. Palica also received a trophy from the Chamber as did Coach Clarence Rivali.

An "Outstanding Player" trophy was given Cary Hubert.

Congratulatory remarks were made by Mayor Albert Isen and City Councilman George Vico, a former Major League baseball star who was Chamber Sports and Youth Chairman last year presented each of the players, plus Palica and Rivali, with baseballs bearing autographs of all members of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Torrance businessmen and organizations who participated in the banquet arrangements were: Don Wilson, developer; Dan E. Butcher, Starlite Homes; Bert Lynn, president, city planning commission; Mayfair Creamery; Safeway markets; Jump 'N Jack, and Nonie Ayers Bakery.

Members of the championship team included: Bob Battaglia, Harry Brown, Norm Casson, Jason Castillo, Ernie Clayton, Jim Coffman, Gary Hayworth, Jim Henderson, Mike Houston, Cary Hubert,
