

Women

Lavina Nugen . . . Women's Editor

★ TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Judy LeClair Weds in Afternoon Ceremony

Miss Judy LeClair became the bride of Jerry Underwood at an afternoon ceremony Saturday, October 8 in the Episcopal Church of the Holy Faith in Inglewood.

Miss LeClair, graduate of North High School, Torrance, is the daughter of Mrs. Elsie LeClair of Lakewood.

Mrs. Victor Bruner, Gardena, is the mother of the bridegroom.

The bride chose a gown of nylon net and chantilly lace fashioned with puff sleeves and a billow skirt.

A crown of lace and pearls caught her illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses encircling an orchid when she was escorted down the aisle by her grandfather, Ross Crawford.

Miss Carol Baker, maid of honor, wore a royal blue taffeta sheath dress with an overskirt of royal blue chiffon. She carried a bouquet of royal blue carnations and white roses.

The bridesmaids wore identical sheath dresses of ice blue taffeta with royal blue taffeta overskirts. They carried bouquets of light blue carnations and white roses.

Misses Joan Byars, Jami LeClair, Joyce Cummings, and Colleen Moore served the bride as bridesmaids.

Hassie Nanning was best man. Chuck King, Ronnie Ogden, Richard Breneman, and Ronnie Nelson were ushers.

After a honeymoon in San Francisco and at Lake Tahoe, the newly weds will be at home in Los Angeles.

MRS. JERRY UNDERWOOD . . . nee Judy LeClair

Parish Prom Set for October 23

The Holy Name Society of St. Margaret Mary's Parish will sponsor a Parish Prom, Saturday, Oct. 22 at the Retail Clerk's Hall in Harbor City.

Nick Vargas and his orchestra will play with dancing at 9 p.m. in the hall at Belle Porte and 260th St.

A donation of $2.50 per couple will be charged for the evening of festivities. Door prizes and a buffet lunch will complete the evening's entertainment.

Further information may be obtained by calling L. Salisbury at DA 6-8847.

Mrs. Roy Apsey Attends

Mrs. Roy Apsey, president of the Torrance Women's Club attended as guest at "Reciprocity and Federation Day" meeting of the Hermosa Women's Club recently.

Use classified ads for quick results. Phone DA 5-1515.

National Recognition Given Bay Secretary

Mrs. W. Howard Smith, President of South Bay chapter, National Secretaries Association International, has achieved the coveted and honored title of Certified Professional Secretary. Mrs. Smith will be awarded her certificate at the Southern California EPS Awards Luncheon, Oct. 29, at the Bel-Air Hotel in West Los Angeles, hosted by the Satellite Chapter.

Mrs. Smith is a charter member of South Bay chapter, having transferred from Queen Beach chapter in Long Beach. She first joined NSA (1) in 1943 as a member of the Gopher chapter, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Presently employed as secretary to the Hearing Examiner for the Eleventh Coast Guard District, Long Beach, Mrs. Smith worked for the Coast Guard previously for ten years in the Merchant Marine Safety Division.

Prior to her employment in the Coast Guard, she was secretary in the Department of State, Washington, D.C. for seven years. She served six years as secretary to the general manager of the Farmers Union Grain Terminal Association, St. Paul, Minnesota, the largest cooperative grain marketing organization in the United States.

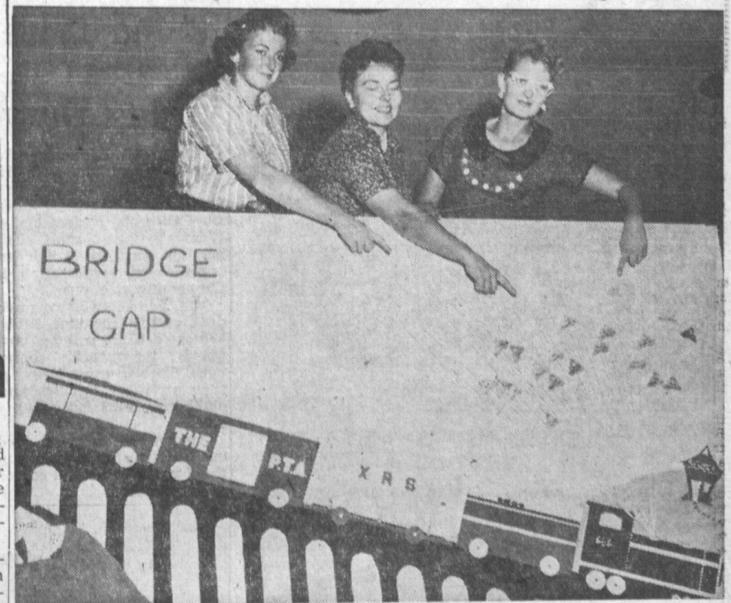

Mrs. Smith earned the CPS status by taking a twelve-hour, two-day test. Based on actual secretarial duties and responsibilities, the SPS examination is supervised and developed by the Institute for Certifying Secretaries, whose members are leaders in business, education, and the secretarial field.

The six sections cover personal adjustment and human relations, business law, business administration, secretarial accounting, secretarial skills, and secretarial procedures. All six parts must be passed before the CPS rating is earned and the certificate issued to the candidate.

Employers or secretaries interested in learning more about the CPS program may write to the Institute for Certifying Secretaries, 1103 Grand Avenue, Suite 410, Kansas City 6, Missouri. Dec. 1, 1960, is the deadline date for applying to take the next examination on May 5 and 6, 1951.

MRS. W. HOWARD SMITH

COASTING — Won't build the bridge between home and school, according to Mrs. C. Caplan (right) membership chairman of the Carl Steele PTA. Mmes. Richard Young (left) and Mrs. Ralph Lawson, co-chairmen of the art committee, made the poster to urge parents to join the PTA during the drive. The quota has almost reached the top, says the membership chairman.

Council PTA president, moderated the event and introduced presidents who presented their principals to the group. A brief talk was given by each principal regarding his life before entering the teaching profession.

Waldrup, assistant superintendent, was also introduced and spoke briefly regarding the override tax.

Coffee and doughnuts were served by PTA board members.

Sherrie Feller Bride of Donald J. Daily

At Home in Torrance after a honeymoon at Lytle Creek, are Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Daily. Mrs. Daily is the former Sherrie Ann Feller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harris Feller, 4222 W. 102 St. Inglewood.

For her wedding, Mrs. Donald Daily chose a princess style white satin cocktail length dress fashioned with a scoop neck and quarter length sleeves. Her illusion veil was held by a veil wrapped crown studded with pearls.

When the bride was escorted to the altar by her uncle, Harold Barnett of El Monte, she carried a bouquet of yellow roses and white stephanotis.

Miss Sharon Quinliven, maid of honor, and the bridesmaids Misses Joyce Blasnek, Pat Quinliven, and Jeana Carpenter wore identical gowns of periwinkle blue satin with petal overskirts. They carried pink and blue carnations.

Bruce Carpenter served the groom as best man. Ushers were Mike Daily, Wayne Moulton, and Cec Blasnek.

Performing the early Autumn double-ring ceremony was the Rev. Joseph T. Potts, minister of the First Presbyterian Church of Inglewood.

Mrs. Daily graduated from Morningside High School and El Camino College. She is now working at the YMCA in Inglewood.

Daily graduated from Narbonne High School and El Camino. He is working for E. F. Braun.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Daily are residing at 2265 W. 229 St., Torrance.

MR. AND MRS. DONALD J. DAILY

. . . nee Sherrie Ann Feller

—Photo by Hartzels

PTA News

223 St. School PTA extends a special invitation to parents of children attending the school to take part in the Halloween Festival on Friday, Oct. 28, which will start immediately after the children's Halloween costume parade.

A big treat for the children will be the woman of many pockets. Booths for dart, bean bag toss, and fishing games will be set up on the school grounds.

White elephants and small sewed articles will be sold at the general store table.

A cartoon movie will be shown in the auditorium.

PTA members will sell refreshments which include tunaburgers, sloppy joes, snowcones, cupcakes, and coffee.

All of the games will be 10 cents and tickets may be purchased from teachers by the students before the start of the Halloween festival.

Mmes. Carl Laursen, Robert Dossey and Albert Owens are the ways and means chairmen in charge of the arrangements for the Halloween festival.

MEADOW PARK PTA will stage its annual Halloween Carnival Oct. 29, from 12 noon to 7:30 p.m. Meadow Park School is located at 3860 230 St. The following booths will be set up: spook house, wet sponge, fish pond, panning for gold, cake walk, ping pong toss, bean bag, baseball throw, and dart game.

Items for sale will be balloons, candy, cake, cut flowers, snow cones. There will be a country store with various types of merchandise. Coffee, soft drinks, pizza, chili, hot dogs, and desserts will be served through the lunch and dinner hours.

Boxes on the sunny side can be ablaze with color this winter if you plant them with Calceolarias. Water no time in setting them out if you want to get color this year! Plan them in pots now if the window box isn't ready. You can plant them pot and all when the time comes.

Mrs. Fred Ball Jr. ways and means chairman, will be assisted by Mmes. Donald Silbaugh and Alex McKay, as game booth chairmen. Mrs. Desmond McCarthy and Mrs. Wm. Luchenbach will be in charge of the food. Ticket sales will be taken care of by Bob Vassar and Mr. Roy Asbury.

D. R. Kallenberger and James Rea will be in charge of booth construction and clean-up.

The room mothers will be also serving at the carnival. The school band led by Bob Simon will open the carnival.

Towers PTA held a pre-organization meeting with Mrs. A. C. Turner, council extension chairman, presiding. The meeting held in the cafeteria last Thursday was for the purpose of starting the mechanics of organization for the PTA which has been requested by many of the parents.

A committee was selected to nominate a slate of officers and to write the by-laws for the group.

Mrs. V. B. Terry, council president, attended and gave a few words of encouragement to the group. Principal of Towers School is R. F. Groshong.

Jefferson PTA will have Dr. Louis Kaplan, director of special services, as guest speaker, October 19, 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

"Understanding Our Children" is the topic Dr. Louis Kaplan has chosen for his address to the parents and teachers.

Several musical selections will be given by the Mothersingers to complete the program for the evening.

On Thursday, Oct. 20, the second and inopulation in a series of three will be given from 6:30 until 8:30 p.m. in the cafeteria. The charge for the shots are $1 each.

All persons who have not already done so are urged to take advantage of the opportunity, stated Mrs. Ensminger, PTA president.

Anza PTA has chosen the theme "Welcome Aboard" for the first meeting of the new school year, Thursday, Oct. 20 at 8 p.m. in the cafeteria.

Mrs. N. O. Hammond, 1st vice president, will present, Philip Korman, principal of Anza School. Korman will speak on "Torrance Schools."

Wm. Faulds, membership chairman, will interview the teachers as part of the evening's program.

Members of the board will be introduced and a film short will be shown.

The kindergarten rooms will have displays for the parents to view.

Adams PTA hosted the PTA presidents and principals at a meeting held October 7, in the school cafeteria.

Mrs. V. B. Terry, Torrance

'Haole Luau' Sisterhood Social Slated Sunday

Temple Menorah Sisterhood will sponsor Haole Luau, first fall social of the year, at the Reef Restaurant in Long Beach, Sunday, Oct. 23 at 5:30 p.m.

An evening of Polynesian fun and food has been planned by Mmes. David Levine and Martin Simon, co-chairmen.

Continuous dining and dancing have been planned from 6:30 until 9 p.m.

Assisting the chairmen in arrangements are: Mmes. Sam Katz, George Lewison, Gene Kaufman, Bernard Rivo, E. W. Brooker, Jackson Belford, Edward Spingeld, Arthur Jurfman, Edward Spingeld, Kurt Bachenheim, and Edward Sokoski.

For further information, inquirers may be answered by calling Mmes. Albert Carmona, Fr. 9-7953; Harvey Abramson, Fr. 7-1208; or Paul Glassman, Fr. 5-0616.

Boxes on the sunny side can be ablaze with color this winter if you plant them with Calceolarias. Water no time in setting them out if you want to get color this year! Plan them in pots now if the window box isn't ready. You can plant them pot and all when the time comes.

S. Bay Mothers of Twins Club Slates Speaker

Father Dominic Bebek will address the So. Bay Mothers of Twins Club Monday, Oct. 17, 7:30 p.m. at a dinner meeting at the Smith Bros. Fish Shanty.

The fathers of twins and any guests have been invited to attend because of the topic Father Bebek has chosen for his address, "Parents, Children and the Facts of Life."

Father Bebek received his master degree from the Gregorian University in Rome, Italy. He is assistant pastor of the Mary Star of the Sea Parish, San Pedro.

An exchange table will be held where mothers exchange outgrown clothing at "gesture prices" with other twin mothers.

FRIENDSHIP AMBASSADORS—Are (left to right) Zaren Terpanjian, Lebanon; Ike Kordies, Arabia; Oscar Igarla and Antonio Doles, Philippines; when they took part in a foreign student industrial relations presentation at 223rd St. School PTA meeting. The boys are pictured with Mrs. R. C. Heitmeyer, president of the PTA.

Marina District Show of Fashions Thursday

"Autumn Splendor" is the theme for the fall fashion show, luncheon and card party, scheduled by the Marina District, 18, California Federation to Women's Clubs, Thursday, October 20, at 12 noon, Club Del Mar, 1910 Ocean Front, Santa Monica.

Chairman of the affair are Mrs. George Bleekman and Mrs. Norman Peterson, co-chairman.

A Halloween motif will be carried out in the decorations, according to Mrs. Janet Dee, chairman.

Others on the committee are Mmes. Alfred Inman, program; S. J. Lere, publicity; Stanley Kmiecik, ticket sales; O. Leonard Huddleston, "Opportunities;" Arthur W. Day, and Edla Tegner.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Karl E. Bishop, first vice and acting president of the district; and Mrs. Ervin W. Graf, secretary.

Rummage Sale Set

The Ladies' Guild of the Central Evangelical Church will hold a rummage sale at the Guild Hall, Marcelina and Arlington.

The sale will begin at 9 a.m. and continue until 5 p.m. on Thursday and Friday, Oct. 20, 21.

Clothing and household goods will be offered sale according to Mrs. DeDe Sporks, chairman.

Those who wish pick-up service for donations may call, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Ruby Smith or Mrs. Katherine Lane.

Art Group Meets

Dr. Marques E. Reitzel has been commissioned as California Artist in residence by Winsor and Newton, an art supply firm, to paint California's current history.

Interrupting his schedule, Dr. Reitzel will present a demonstration in oil painting and sketch scenes of local interests for the Torrance Art Group.

The session will be held Oct. 21, 8 p.m. at the Sea Aire Park Golf building 22730 Lupine Dr.

South Bay artists have been invited to attend.

Use classified ads for quick results. Phone DA 5-1515.

ESTIMATING WORK to be done on the building before the Gardena Valley Center for Mentally Retarded Children can move in are (left to right) Mrs. Jean Bower, publicity chairman; Mrs. Lillian Stern, vice-president, and daughter, Sharon; Mrs. Ruth Stiers, secretary, who can barely be seen; Mrs. Ruth White, membership chairman, and son, Bill.