

TOY PARTY — Plans are being made by the Torrance Junior Woman's Club for a toy party to be held at the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave., Oct. 26, 8 p.m. Helping with the arrangements for handicraft fair and toy party are Mmes. Lois Felando, Clayton T. Lilley and W. H. Gardner, chairman. An opportunity to start Christmas shopping, said Mrs. Gardner.

Torrance YWCA Launches Drive for Members

The Young Women's Christian Association is the largest organization of women and girls in the world, stated Mrs. Minnie Solomon, public relations director of the Torrance YWCA.

The organization is motivated by Christian purposes and everyone is welcomed for membership regardless of race, creed, age, or social and economic level. The "Y" has more than 100 years of experience and has proved its worth, said Mrs. Solomon.

Attention is focused on the needs of teenage girls and young women.

Mrs. Opal Bernard, membership chairman, announced dues are three dollars per year and 300 members are needed for the Torrance group.

Inquiries may be mailed to the Torrance YWCA, Post Office Box 398, Torrance.

Hospital Auxiliary Holds Tea

The Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary recently entertained with the second of a series of maternity teas in the spacious tea-room of the hospital in Torrance.

The long tea table was decorated in vivid shades of blue and purple; carrying out the unusual color scheme, was a centerpiece arrangement of fall asters, and deep orchid candles in silver candelabra.

Mrs. Frank H. Forester, president of the Auxiliary, presided at the tea tray and Mrs. Johnson Lovett, chairman of the tea, poured coffee during the afternoon.

Mrs. Forester presented Sister Margaret Mary, who gave an interesting description of the maternity floor to the hundred guests. Sister Margaret Mary, assisted by members of the committee, escorted the guests on a tour of the floor, the nursery proving to be the central point of interest.

Mrs. Benno Fettig won the first door prize, which was an order for a complete set of baby pictures, while Mrs. Norman Ulichick held the winning number for the second prize.

Co-chairman of the tea was Mrs. Free and Mrs. Victor Benstead was in charge of the decorations. Members of the committee were Mmes. Jerome J. Kimmet, Robert Lewellen, Jr., Richard F. Lescoe, Matthew W. Romeo, Peter Boonstra and Frank Hardin.

Miss Linda I. Shore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spencer, 1708 W. 238 St., South Torrance, became the bride of George Edward Friedl in a candlelight ceremony.

The Rev. Walter Graham performed the double-ring nuptials at the Western Avenue Baptist chapel in Harbor City.

Wearing a gown of white chantilly lace fashioned with a fitted bodice and a billowing skirt, the bride was given in marriage by her father.

A white satin tiara accented with minute seed pearls caught Miss Shore's shoulder-length illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of white sephanotis encircling white orchids.

Maid of honor was Miss Sue Forter who wore a delicate pink embossed gown and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Donald Blackburn, uncle of the groom, served as best man. Robin Pederson was usher.

Following a reception held at the home of the bride, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Catalina.

Miss Diana Spencer, sister of the bride, presided at the guest book during the reception.

Mrs. and Mrs. George Friedl are graduates of Narbonne High School.

Friedl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell R. Green, of Harbor City, is employed by Blackburn Plumbing Co. in Hawthorne.

The newly weds are at home in Harbor City.

'Get Acquainted Tea' Yearly Affair at St. Philomena's

The first annual "Get Acquainted Tea" was held at the St. Philomena Catholic School, 21900 Main St., last Sunday.

Mrs. Mike Marincovich, school co-ordinator, introduced the members of the school's board and Mrs. Gene LaRoy, president of the women's Council.

Mrs. LaRoy invited the parents who were present to attend the next regular meeting of the council to be held Monday, Oct. 24, in the hall of the school.

Hostesses for the afternoon affair were Mmes. William Cary, Howard DeCastro, Albert Cagne, Ed Germany, Harold Gonderinger, William Hopkins, Theodore Olson, Jose Ortiz, and John Rubio.

Pouring were Mmes. Walter Eilers and Paul Ferrara. Mrs. Robert Turner was in charge of the decorations. She was assisted by Mmes. Walter Eilers and Mike Marincovich.

Guests were registered in a guest book by Mrs. Turner.

The ladies were reminded of the Halloween Carnival to be held on the school grounds, 21900 Main St., Sunday, Oct. 30, from 1 to 5 p.m.

There will be game zoths, a white elephant booth, and bake goods will be sold. A Taco Dinner will be served and hot dogs, hamburgers, and coffee and soft drinks will be sold.

Refreshments will be served at the board meeting, October 17, and the regular council meeting, October 24. Guild serveybee e erincot by members of St. Mark's Guild under the leadership of Mrs. Howard DeCastro and Mrs. Keith Englehardt.

'Informed Voting' Topic of Meeting for Alpha Delta Pi

Alpha Delta Pi Alumnae of the South Bay area will hold their second meeting of the season on October 26 at 8 p.m.

Hostess for the event will be Mrs. G. R. Reinhardt, 414 Via Mesa Grande, Redondo Beach. Refreshments will be served by Mmes. Joseph Mitchler and George Ott.

"Well Informed Voting" will be the theme of the evening. Speakers from the Palos Verdes Peninsula League of Womens voters, will be Mmes Richard Barrar and Albert Nadel.

The League is a national organization dedicated to the promotion of political responsibility through informed and active participation in government. The speakers will give the pros and cons of the forthcoming ballot measures and issues. The league has been active in giving lectures on the national and local issues for several years.

New Alpha Delta Pi alumnae in the South Bay area are invited to attend.

'FIX UP' COSTS

Keep a record of any "fix up" expenses you incur in readying your house for sale. Anaconda copper blumbing specialists advise. These and other selling expenses, such as broker commissions, lawyer's fees and advertising, are tax deductible.

Women

Lavina Nugen . . . Women's Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Civic Symphony to Open Season with Guest Soloist

Opening their sixteenth season Tuesday Oct. 25 with a concert, the Civic Symphony will have Miss Louise DiTullio, flutist, as guest soloist.

The concert will begin at 8:15 p.m. in Redondo Union High School Auditorium.

Miss Louise DiTullio will play Mozart's Concerto No. 1. She began her training as a flutist when she was twelve years old.

Four years later she was a member of a winning trio at the Colman Chamber Music auditions. She appeared the same year with the Long Beach Symphony and the Burbank Youth Symphony at the Starlight Bowl.

Miss DiTullio won the Hollywood Jewish Center Annual Young Musicians auditions and was presented in recital.

A scholarship student for two summers at the Music Academy of the West, she appeared as soloist with the orchestra twice.

Last season, Miss DiTullio was presented in a premiere performance of the Suite Modale for flute and strings by Ernest Bloch by the University of Judaism when the university sponsored the Bloch Festival.

In 1959 Miss DiTullio was nominated for the Ford Foundation Award by Leon-

MISS LOUISE DITULLIO . . . Soloist

Inquirers may obtain information by calling Fr. 5-2744.

White Elephant Sale Set Oct. 22

The Mothers' Club of Scout Troop 315 will hold a White Elephant Sale at the location of the sponsoring organization, Torrance Moose Lodge, 1744 W. Carson St., Saturday, Oct. 22 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Many attractive and useful articles will be sold for minimal prices. The money will be used by the Scout Mothers to help the troop finance its many activities.

The public is cordially invited.

NO LOCAL DOCTOR

In Kadus, India, a village of 5000, there is no local physician and no hospital. Once a week a visiting doctor arrives in a CARE mobile health unit. It is an $11,500 clinic on wheels.

MOISTURE DAMAGE

Moisture condensation from showers or baths can cause considerable damage to bathroom walls and ceilings. They recommend airing the bathroom thoroughly even in winter. If the bath room is windowless, a ventilating fan should be installed.

Church Bazaar Has Western Party Air

A Western Party and Bazaar will be held in the Masonic Temple dining room, 503 S. Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach, Saturday, Oct. 22, sponsored by the Redondo-Torrance Church of Religious Science.

Activities will be continuous from 12 noon until 10 p.m. Mrs. Walter Wiltfong, accordionist, will lead Western dressed strolling musicians under the direction of Arthur Hopkins and his guitar.

Children will be entertained with games and square dancing is planned, called by Iron Strickland.

Among many special features will be portrait sketching by Mrs. Lilly Leigh, and handwriting analysis by Mrs. E. C. Deebel.

Displayed for sale will be arts and crafts, needlework, white elephants, phonograph records (many collector's items), baked goods to take home, gourmet finger food to be eaten on the premises and other interesting items.

All goods and services will be priced from 5 cents to $2.95, according to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Robbins, co-chairmen. Proceeds will be used to help furnish the planned new church, construction of which will begin Nov. 1, 1960.

All are welcome, and invited to wear Western dress or costume if desired, stated Mrs. Mildred Bennet.

Over four billion dollars was spent last year by the 14 million homeowners who undertook home improvement and maintenance projects.

Shore-Friedl Wed in Baptist Chapel Ceremony

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE FRIEDL
...nee Linda I. Shore

Eta Kappa Group Fetes Rushees

Eta Kappa Chapter, E.S.A. sorority held a Spacette card and dice game party, last Friday in the evening at the home of Mrs. Stewart Angus, 16718 Faysmith. This was one of the events on the rushing calendar for October.

A clever game contrived by the hostess was "Rockets Aaway." A dice game in which each guest tried for points in building her own rocket. The first participant completing the rocket, Blasted Off for a winner.

Decorations motif was a center piece of a silver and pink missile. Name pieces were in the shape of miniature rockets with the words "Blast Off" and "Rockets Aaway."

Prizes were won by Mmes. Louis Verne and Charles Pfeffer.

Rushees attending were Mmes. R. R. Bardick, William Poser. Members and guests included, Mmes. Stanley McDowell, Charles Leitchweis, icent Mazzaro, John Meehan, Kenneth McVey, L. Verne, C. Pfeffer, S. Angus, and Edward Foley.

DANCE CLUB MEETS

Old fashioned Dance Club meets each Friday night at 8:30 p.m. at Anderson Memorial Playground, 9 and Mesa in San Pedro.

Members and guests are invited to a special costume dance, Oct. 28, stated Mrs. Lambrigger, publicity chairman.

FLAVIO COLLEGE OF BEAUTY

HAIRCUT OR SHAMPOO & SET

Good Oct. 20—Also Oct. 24 to 27

Bring This Advertisement 99¢ Long Hair Slightly Extra

COMPLETE BEAUTY SERVICES

Perm. Waves . . . from 3.95

Tints . . . . . from 3.95

Supervised Advanced Student Work
Open Monday Through Saturday
Evenings: Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday

FLAVIO COLLEGE OF BEAUTY

1628 Cravens Ave. Downtown Torrance
FA 0-0404

WHY SMART WOMEN COOK WITH MODERN GAS:

INSTANT on—no warm-up wait. Even highest cooking temperatures are delivered immediately. On all four high-speed burners at once, if you wish. Small wonder smart women agree: Gas cooking is easier because it's so flexible. From simmer to boil and at 1000 temperatures in between, you're in charge. A modern gas range gives you the finest automatic features—yet costs less to buy and install, costs less to operate, too.

GAS

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA GAS COMPANY

Range illustrated: beautiful new O'Keefe & Merritt, built to Gold Star Award standards.

FREE JET TRIP FOR 2 TO INAUGURATION

2nd PRIZE: A YEAR'S SUPPLY OF FRESH DAIRY PRODUCTS FROM CARNATION!

Here's how to enter your name: Visit your Gas range dealer NOW... see the new Gas ranges... and pick up your FREE COPY of the 1960 ELECTION NIGHT PARTY BOOK. There's a coupon on the back—fill it out and leave it with your dealer. That's all you need do to enter the contest for these two great prizes!

Dates: January 19-22. Spend INAUGURATION TIME in Washington... all expenses paid!

Use classified. Call DA 5-1515