Lamplighters Set Guest Night Oct. 26
Women interested in joining a self-improvement club are invited to attend Lamplighters Toastmistress guest night meeting Wednesday, Oct. 26, stated Jeannine Patterson, publicity chairman. The theme for the evening will be "Personality Improvement." To help members to improve in oral expression of thought through study and practice in conversation is one of the aims of the club. Gaining poise and confidence in speech, which will prove a valuable asset in everyday conversation is one of the benefits of the group. The meeting will be held at the Western Club, 15516 S. Western Ave., Gardena, Oct. 26, for further information, please contact membership chairman Pearl Risher, DA 3-3253, or reservation chairman Jeannine Patterson DA 3-1986.

Catholic Daughters Give 'Spook' Party
A Halloween party will be sponsored by the Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, this evening at Nativity Parish Hall on Cota Ave. Costumes are optional and guests are welcome for the evening of fun being planned, according to Mmes. Leonard Young and Joseph Comore, co-chairmen for the event. Reports of the annual district meeting in Los Angeles were given at the October business meeting of the local court. Mrs. Donald W. Bryant, grand regent, gave the main report, with observations from Mmes. Joseph Comore, Richard Ban, Don Cowden and Harvey Lee, who also attended. Two members on whom honors have been conferred were introduced. Mrs. Don Cowden for her election to the executive board of the Past Grand Regents Club at the recent dinner meeting in Los Angeles, and Mrs. Richard Ban for her appointment as a district deputy. Mrs. Ban announced that the courts which she will supervise for the next two years are Courts Madonna of Lynwood (whose chaplain is the Rev. P. J. McGuinness, formerly of Torrance), Marian of Long Beach and Providence of Lawndale. The success of the fashion show was included in the report of Mrs. Robert Aguilar, Mrs. Robert Lowellen, Jr., plans for the initiation of extension chairman, told of new members scheduled for November.

Membership Tea Set by Garden Club
Members of the Torrance Terrace Garden Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Wilfred Stevens to plan their annual Membership Tea. Mrs. L. Norris, chairman of membership, has urged members to bring prospective members to the tea set for October 26, at 1:30 p.m. at the Hillcrest Nursery, 1517 W. Anaheim St., Harbor City. Harvey Darroch will discuss camellias and azaleas at the meeting. In charge of Halloween decorations for the refreshment table is Mrs. H. Klein, chairman of the decorating committee.
