

Coffee Cancels Two Debates Scheduled Against King

Tom Coffee, political opponent of Congressman Cecil R. King, has cancelled two of his scheduled appearances for campaign debates with King, Alfred Eachus, King Re-Election Campaign Committee chairman, announced today.

"The first cancellation by Mr. Coffee was at the scheduled appearance of Coffee and King to debate U.S. foreign policy at the South Bay meeting of the United World Federalist, Wednesday night," Eachus said. Moderator Allan Beck, of the United World Federalists, informed Congressman King's secretary that the scheduled meeting would be cancelled because "Mr. Coffee could not make it," Eachus stated.

Mrs. Zonetta Cargill, Legislative Chairman of the El Segundo Business and Professional Woman's Club, at whose organization both Congressman King and Coffee were to appear at a candidate night meeting, notified Congressman King's office that "no debate would take place" because Coffee had informed her that he would "be out of the State on that date."

Congressman King has agreed to be principal speaker at the dinner meeting of the El Segundo Business and Professional Woman's Club, Monday, Oct. 24, Mrs. Cargill announced.

"So far Coffee has not yet cancelled the other two scheduled appearances on the same platform with Congressman King, one October 25 at the League of Women Voters meeting at Palos Verdes Estates, and the other at the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall in Gardena, October 27," Eachus stated.

A "Little Debate," as compared to the scope of the "Great Debate," has been scheduled for October 27 between Coffee, Republican candidate for the 17th Congress-
