Torrance Juniors Hold Fair

The Handicraft Fair held at the clubhouse by the Torrance Junior Woman's Club last Wednesday was a successful event, according to Mrs. Lee Clotworthy, president.

Gift items of all description gave many ideas to early Christmas shopping minded patrons. The Toy Party brought many remarks concerning the delightful dolls and toys.

At the regular business meeting recently, the membership voted to give $500 to the Garden Valley Association for Retarded Children.

It was also voted to purchase a lift for the use of a disabled resident of Torrance.

Party workers are needed by both Republicans and Democrats, stated Mrs. W. E. Starr, Americanism chairman, and she urged members to volunteer to help their party choice.

Women's Auxiliary Schedules Events

Mrs. Lee Solomon, newly installed president of the women's auxiliary to the South Bay Pharmaceutical Association, presided at the October luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. D. Engelbert of Torrance.

The meeting was opened with an inspirational message given by the newly appointed chaplain, Mrs. Donald Demarest.

Officers reporting to the group were Mmes. Douglas Ingle, first vice president; James Kamada, second vice president; C. E. Bogolea, secretary; C. P. Abler treasurer and D. S. Forsyth, parliamentarian.

Following a discussion and vote, it was decided that the Annual Shamrock Ball, to be held on March 18, 1961, will be at the Fox Hills Country Club.

Mrs. E. D. Cottrell, chairman, announced that rummage will be collected during November and December for the South Bay Auxiliary to Children's Hospital Thrift Shop.

Chairmanships announced by Mrs. Solomon were Mmes. R. Jackson, auditor; C. E. Putnam, historian; R. A. Rector, publicity; I. V. Edwards, press book; D. E. Boyd, art and decorations; P. S. Aspen and Robert Sherrill, scholarship committee.

On November 3, the auxiliary will hold their meeting at the Palms Restaurant in Torrance. Honored guests at this event will be Mrs. M. E. Wright of Stanton, state president of the women's auxiliary to the California Pharmaceutical Association, and Mrs. C. V. Turner, state secretary of Costa Mesa. They will be making their annual visit to the auxiliary.

Members attending the 62nd National Association of Retail Druggist Annual Convention in Denver, Colorado in October were Messrs. and Mms. Jack Dean, Fred Reese and Lee Solomon.

Guests and members attending this meeting were Mms. Edward Lalonde, Abler, Aspen, Bogolea, C. E. Brauer, Cottrell, Dean Demarest, Edwards, Englebert, E. R. Fietz, Forsyth, R. M. Greenlees, Ingle, Jackson, Kamada, Stanley Lieber, James Mills Putnam, Rector and Solomon.

DINNER PARTY DINE

Mrs. Charles Lockwood of Torrance attended the Xi Gamma, Beta Sigma Phi sorority meeting last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Edward Porter, 6326 W. 85th St., Westchester.

The cultural program, "The Good Life," consisted of a group discussion with Miss Turh Phelps, Westchester, as discussion leader.

Torrance High Slates 'Back to School' Night

Parents of Torrance High School students are invited to visit the classes of their sons and daughters on Tuesday, Nov. 1 in the annual "Back To School" night activity.

Letters of invitation, including a map of the campus and a program card, will be mailed to all parents this week.

A brief meeting of the THS Parent - Teacher Association will precede actual visitation to the classes.

A six-period "day" has been established for parents to visit the class rooms on a 12-minute period basis. Teachers will explain to the parents the goals and objectives of their particular courses and the course content, homework policies, grading and citizenship standards will be described, as well as the testing program.

Text books and materials from the classes will be on display for parent perusal.

The "Back To School" night program titled "Focus on the Classroom" will start in the THS auditorium, 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 1.

Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria at the conclusion of the evening's activities.

Dr. Carl R. Ahee, THS Principal, states: "We hope to meet parents new to Torrance High School."

Harbor Aquarium Society Meets

The October meeting of the Harbor Aquarium Society will be held on Thursday, Oct. 27, at 8 p.m. in the Recreation Hall at McMasters Park, 174 at Yukon in Torrance. President Russel Gammel of Redondo Beach will conduct the meeting.

At this time no speaker has been announced. The main event of the evening will be the awarding of prizes. An aquarium for the member who has brought in the most "new" members in the past six months; a picture frame Beta tank and male Beta to the winner of the contest for the best article for the club paper, the "Harbor Aquarist"; and the awarding of an Aquarium to the one who sold the most tickets on the big grand prize of the year. The drawing for the grand prize winner of a 15 gallon aquarium will be held at this meeting.

Complete with all accessories, fish, plants, and stand, the winner of the aquarium will only have to furnish the water and electricity.

The showfish of the month is the family of Characins, the largest family of aquarium fish. It includes the Tetras, the Pencil fish, the Featherfins, the Bloodfins, Headstanders, Blind Cave fish, the oddly shaped little Hatchet fish and many others. Among the Tetras are the lovely Neon and the Head and Tailfin fish. The Piranha of the Amazon is also a member of the Characin family.

The door prize will be a five gallon aquarium with hood. Refreshments will be served after the meeting.
