

Women

Lavina Nugen . . . Women's Editor

★ TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Donna Stoeckle Weds In Afternoon Ceremony

Miss Donna Lee Stoeckle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stoeckle, 2612 W. 175th St., Torrance, became the bride of Donald M. White at an afternoon ceremony Saturday in the Christ the King Lutheran Church.

The Reverend Ma y n a r d Midthum performed the double-ring ceremony after the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Stoeckle wore a tissue taffeta gown fashioned with a high neckline with a small mandarin collar and long pointed sleeves. The bodice of the gown was appliqued with lace studded with pearls and sequins.

The bride wore a crown of matching lace bordered with tiny pearls and pearl sequins that held her finger-tip veil of imported English silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Jill Armstrong, maid of honor, wore a blue satin ducharm dress fashioned with a scoop neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. She wore a matching hat with a blue double crown of braided nylon veils. A cascade of blue carnations completed her ensemble.

The bridesmaids Misses Nancy Stoeckle, Susan Wilson, and Paula Tenney wore identical dresses of pink satin ducharm styled with barrel pleated skirts. Their headpieces were identical to the maid of honor's but pink in color. They carried cascades of peppermint carnations.

Tom Begler served as best man and ushers were John Bishop, Robert Webb, and Dennis Hopkins.

Little Miss Bonnie Ferry wore a white taffeta floor length dress with a gathered bodice. Lace daisy appliques enhanced the pretty dress. She wore a blue floral headpiece and carried a basket of flower petals.

After a reception in the church the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Las Vegas.

The new Mrs. White is a senior at North High School.

MRS. DONALD WHITE
... nee Donna Stoeckle

Photo by Seemans

Sig Halls Tell Daughter, Pamela's Wedding Date

The approaching marriage of Miss Pamela Alice Hall to Johnny Zamrzla, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Zamrzla of Torrance has been announced by Miss Hall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sig Hall of Parker, Arizona.

The happy pair will pledge their vows at the Community Church in Parker on December 3.

A honeymoon in Acapulco and Mexico City, is planned for the pair before returning to California to make their home.

Upon their return to California, Mr. and Mrs. John Zamrzla will host a reception for the newlyweds.

John ny Zamrzla graduated from Torrance High School and now owns Lee's Roofing Service, Inc. in Bell, California.

PAMELLA HALL
... betrothed

Photo by Crbftys

Carnation Ball to Be Background for Community's Loveliest Gowned Women

Holiday festivities for the women of the Eta Kappa chapter sorority will begin with the fashionable Carnation Ball sponsored by the Mira Costa Regional Council. The gala affair will be held at the Mayflower Ballroom, 234 S. Hindry in Inglewood, Saturday, Nov. 12.

Sid Mann and his orchestra will be playing dance music from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. for the third annual benefit sponsored by the Council, which consists of 14 chapters which participate in the major philanthropic benefit of the year.

Funds derived from the ball will go to Angel View crippled children's hospital at Desert Hot Springs.

Mrs. Walter Stewart, junior past president of the Council and chairman of the Ball, announced that many door prizes will be awarded.

Among the prizes will be two vacations in Las Vegas through the courtesy of the Hacienda and the Riviera Hotel; Helena Rubenstein gifts; See's Candies; and many others which are being donated by well-wishers of the worthy cause.

Honored guests at the Carnation Ball will be Mrs. Joseph Premeaux, California state president, and Mrs. Howard Noble, MCRC president, and their husbands.

Reservations and further information are available by calling Mrs. Stewart Angus at DAvis 4-6080. Tickets are $3 a couple.

Excitement in the anticipation of a delightful evening has full sway among the local women, who are planning what gowns they will be wearing for the affair.

Mrs. Kenneth McVey will be gowned in a French blue nylon sheer strapless creation. The dress is fashioned with a tiered scalloped skirt of alternating tiers of schiffli embroidered border outline on the tiers.

Mrs. Stewart Angus has chosen a street length beige brocade full flared skirt dress fashioned with a fitted waistline and a subtle sophisticated pleated overlay neckline that dips to a smart low in the back.

Mrs. Stanley McDowell will be radiant in a royal blue nylon lace cocktail length dress styled with a plunging V neckline, fitted bodice, and elbow length sleeves.

A superbly molded sheath in the new orchid shade has been chosen by Mrs. Harry Hunting. The dress is silk with petite cap sleeves and a square neckline.

A billowy skirted chiffon formal length gown of tangerine has been selected by Mrs. Louis Verne. The gown is fashioned with a pleated bodice and spaghetti straps.

Mrs. Vincent Mazzaro will be charming in a kelly green brocade satin short formal sheath, fashioned with a portrait neckline that is dipped low in the back to accent the sheath lines.

A gown of grey nylon over rose satin will be worn by Mrs. Charles Pfeffer. The skirt is paneled in alternating pleated tulle in a soft femininely full skirted effect.

Wearing a powder blue taffeta formal length strapless gown styled with a fitted bodice and full skirt is Mrs. Michael Buccoleri. A matching cummerbund ending in a bow at the back accents the waistline.

Mrs. Carlos Espinosa will be in a romantic mood in a swirling full skirted Parisian blue chiffon formal length gown. A fitted bodice artfully drawn into a saftly pleated midriff and a draped neckline with a turnout dipped low in the back make this an elegant gown indeed.

A mint green butter-soft chiffon skirt with a matching lace bodice top is the creation Mrs. Charles Leitchweis has chosen for the ball. The ensemble is styled with deep ribbed midriff that lends depth to the wonderful combinations. The bodice is fashioned with a scoop neckline and cap sleeves.

Heavenly pink lace over satin with a fitted bodice and a full swirling skirt is the creation Mrs. John Meehan has chosen for the evening. A large pink satin bow accents the waistline of the gown.

Mrs. R. R. Bardick makes her debut in a flaming red chiffon velvet slim line modified sheath of cocktail length.

Mrs. O. L. Winn Jr. will twirl in an electric blue chiffon full skirted dress. The draped bodice is belted at the waist and the trimming is Grecian design.

A blue brocade short formal length gown with a fitted bodice and a slightly flared skirt will be Mrs. William Peser's choice for the ball. Small glittering jewels accent the bodice of the beautiful gown.

ANTICIPATING DELIGHT is the Carnation Ball for Eta Kappa women (left to right) Mmes. Kenneth McVey, president; John Meehan, recording secretary; Charles Leitchweis, treasurer; and Carlos Espinosa. The ball will be held at the Mayflower Ballroom Saturday, Nov. 12.

Floral Demonstration Set for Las Vecinas Club

Flower arrangements in the modern and classical manner will be presented to the Las Vecinas Club at their meeting Friday, Nov. 18 at the Plush Horse, announced Mrs. William Petersen, program chairman.

Chikusui "Willie" Kondo, a native Japanese, in the United States on a scholarship at Henderson State Teachers College in Arkansas, has a native heritage in flower arranging for his father owns and directs the School of Flower Arranging in Natsuyama, Japan.

Kondo attended Los Angeles State College where he majored in speech and drama.

In his lecture-demonstrations, he uses whatever materials are available in the normal home and garden. He has a rare technique of leaving his audiences with the real impact of Japanese culture.

be music presented by the La' Vecinas Chorus under the direction of Mrs. E. R. Harvey. The chorus will be accompanied by Mrs. Robert Padelford, who was recently made an honorary member of the club.

Mrs. Nicholas Gregory, tea chairman for the month will be assisted by Mmes Gaylord Anderson, William Reid and Clair A. Peterson.

Following the speaker will

Use classified. Call DA 5-1515

Y Wives Plan Busy Month

Bob Baker Marionettes will perform at the Y Wives Christmas show, Saturday, Dec. 10, a.m., at the YWCA building 2320 W. Carson St.

Everyone will enjoy this delightful show, especially the children. Bring a blanket or pillow for the children to sit on. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Chet Warren DA 3-3775, 50 cents for adults or children.

Wives meet at 9:30 Tuesdays at the YWCA center 2320 W. Carson in Torrance. All women interested in improving themselves and making new friends are invited to attend the meetings.

Experienced baby sitters take care of the pre school children. Mrs. Kim Alred instructs a hour of rhythmic exercise, followed by coffee and a hour's planned program.

November 15: Mrs. Harley, president of Torrance Garden Club, will present "Making Gifts for Christmas," Nov. 22: The Director of the Institute of American Reading, Benjamin H. Neiden, will tell of the phonetic reading method

Wedding Date Set by Torrance Coed

REGINA HOLT
... betrothed

Miss Regina Laudine Holt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lars A. Holt, 16838 Thornburgh Ave., and Richard George Hinkey will pledge their wedding vows at the St. Catherine Laboure Catholic Church, Torrance, on February 4th.

Richard Hinkey is the son of Mrs. Dorothy Hinkey, Anaheim, and George Hinkey, 2109 W. 177th St.

Miss Holt graduated from St. Michael's High School, Los Angeles, and is employed in the Girl's Department of Sears Del Amo.

The benedict-elect graduated Westchester High School and is associated with Western Decorating Co., Los Angeles, as foreman of exterior decorators.

During the St. Michael's Senior Prom last spring, the couple's engagement was announced to their friends.

Use Press classified ads to buy, rent or sell. Phone DA 5-1515.

THS Drama Teacher Awarded Silver Wings

Miss Marcia H. Larson, drama teacher at Torrance High School for the past two years, has won the silver wings of a United Air Lines stewardess. After four and a half weeks at the company's stewardess training school in Cheyenne, Wyo., she now serves aboard Mainliners flying in and out of the New York area. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Larson, Louisville.

Miss Larson is a graduate of Scotch Plains (N. J.) High School and Syracuse University where she was a member of Alpha Chi Omega.

In becoming a stewardess, Miss Larson has entered a profession which was pioneered by United and is observing its 30th anniversary this year.

MARCIA H. LARSON
... wins silver wings

Photo by United Airlines

Evergreen Ball Begins Bright Holiday Season

Marking the beginning of Christmas Season festivities will be the highly anticipated, annual Evergreen Ball to be presented on Nov. 26 at the Palos Verdes Country Club by Las Madrecitas, South Bay Auxiliary of the Crippled Children's Guild. The semi-formal event will feature dance music by Les Tronsier and an elaborate buffet dinner.

Fragrant evergreen boughs, sparkling with gold ornaments, will provide a seasonal theme. Mobiles, in the form of golden birdcages guarded by angels, will be suspended from the ceiling of the main ballroom. In the dining room and cocktail lounge, decorations will be reminiscent of the lingering Thanksgiving holiday. Tree-shaped epergnes will be filled with natural, autumn-toned fruits. Candles, placed in brassy snuffers, will cast soft lights. Della Robia Wreaths will decorate the walls.

During the course of the evening, presentations will be made of many exciting gifts, including a stay of two days and two nights for two at Apple Valley Inn.

Almost hidden by the glamour and gaiety of the Evergreen Ball is its serious purpose. All money raised will be applied to Las Madrecitas' pledge of $33,000 to the Pediatric Ward of the Orthopaedic Hospital. Gifts for children in the hospital will be brought by persons attending the dance.

Co-Chairmen of the Ball are Mmes. George Savage and Wyman G. Reynolds. Assisting them as committee heads are Mmes. M. L. Fiorelli, Philip Steinberg, Arnold W. Martin, John Rasmussen, Richard Barbour, and Charles C. MacPherson.

Use classified ads for quick results. Phone DA 5-1515.

STUNNING STYLES will be shown at the bridge luncheon fashion show benefit sponsored by the Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills branch of the American Association of University Women. The affair will be held Nov. 15 at the La Venta Inn, 796 Via Del Monte, Palos Verdes, at 11:30 a.m. Viewing a preview of the styles to be shown are (left to right) Mmes. Richard Donnelly, Jean Baker and Dwight Hayes. The dress is beige with a silk chiffon skirt and a cotton lace sleeveless bodice. Fashions will be from the Plain and Bridge luncheon fashion show benefit spon-

HOMECOMING GIFT is presented to the Welcome Wagon in honor of the second anniversary celebration planned for November 10 at the Elks Club, Redondo. Former and present members have been invited by (right) Mrs. Jack Bolt, president. Jack Shat, owner of the Holland American Bakery in Hollywood Riviera, presents Mrs. Bolt with the cake for the occasion.