Fleming Junior High PTA executive board will meet Friday, Nov. 18, in the Library at 8:30 a.m.

"Firm foundations for our Youth" will be the topic of a panel discussion at the regular association meeting November 22, in the Music Room at 1:30 p.m.

Ronald Underwood, Los Angeles County Probation Department will act as panel moderator. Committees featured will be: child welfare, citizenship, juvenile protection and safety.

Election of nominating committee will be held.

Fleming PTA is urged to participate in the "Toys for Tots," sponsored by KABC-TV and the Marine Corps. One new, unwrapped toy will serve as admission to an exciting show at the Sports Arena Figueroa and Santa Barbara, Saturday, Dec. 3 at 10 a.m.

Tea will be served in the Library following the meeting, affording an opportunity to visit with members of the faculty. Hostesses will be from the Palos Verdes Peninsula area.

Newton PTA November board meeting was held recently at the home of Mrs. Carl Johnson.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and the financial report was given.

Plans were made for the Father and Son Night, Nov. 18, at which movies of the 1959 world series and cartoons will be shown. Admissions will be 50 and 25 cents. Refreshments will be served by board members.

A March 3 date was set for a Mother and daughter Fashion Show which will include three participants from the eight-grade sewing class modeling their own creations.

Mrs. Carl Johnson, ways and means chairman, announced that plans are completed for a carnival in April, and that the first of two bottle drives had netted $52.03. The board gave a vote of appreciation to Wm. Reese for his cooperation in the bottle drive.

A proposal by Mrs. James Hurst was accepted to conduct a drive to start Nov. 28 to collect canned goods, winter clothing and shoes for the Navajo Indians. During the week of the drive a movie will be shown by Roger Bowling about the Navajos.

Present were Mms. Warren Post, president; Wayne Blumel, safety; Wm. E. Thomas, recording secretary; James Hurst, room mothers; David Tanner, program; Wm. Forrest, TEAC; Wing Mar, legislation and international relations; Nathan Good, courtesy and welcome; Chas. E. Nelson, music; Carl Johnson, ways and means; Wm. La More, second vice president; J.E. Chedoke, treasurer; H. A. Guthrie, publicity and Mr.

C. Richard Wallner, principal.
Next board meeting will be held Dec. 8 at the home of Mrs. James Hurst, 5120 Pacific Coast Highway.

Adams Elementary PTA meeting was held Nov. 15, 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria, 2121 W. 238th St. The theme for the program will be "Open the Door to Learning."

Guest speaker was Mrs. Lynn Schidler from the Education Materials Building chairman, will give a report on his department.

Hostesses for the evening were the fifth and sixth grade mothers.

The first rag and paper drive held recently at Adams was a success. Kills' eighth grade won first prize for the upper division and Mrs. M. Speers' first grade won first place for lower division.

Riviera PTA honored the Dads with a Father's Night Nov. 16, 8 p.m., Riviera Cafeteria.

Guest speaker was Joe Wilcox of the Torrance YMCA.

Mixed musical selections from barbershop to light comedy were presented by the Los Concioneros quartet. Singers are William Beckman, Thomas Mabin, Jack McDonald and Walker Brown. Hostesses were seventh and eighth grade mothers.

Mrs. Charles Merlian, movie chairman, announces the first of the Saturday movies will be Nov. 19, 12:30 p.m., Riviera Cafeteria. Feature picture will be the "Mayflower Story" with cartoons.

Jefferson PTA met at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 16 in the school cafeteria, 21717 Talisman St.

After a short business meeting and briefing every one present went in cars to the Educational Material Building which has been termed a "Supermarket of knowledge."

A tour was conducted throughout the building to acquaint the PTA members with the purpose of the plant.

On Thursday, Nov. 17 from 8:30 until 8:30 p.m., in the Cafeteria, the March of Dimes in cooperation with the Jefferson PTA will be giving polio inoculations. The charge will be $1 per person.

Yukon PTA executive board met at the school, Thugs, Nov. 10 at 7:30 p.m. Upper grade pupils in room 13 chose two records, "A Thousand Stars" and "You Talk Too Much," for their award; and pupils in room 4 and 10 were served ice cream and cake for scoring the highest percentage of PTA memberships during the recent membership enrollment week. Nearly 400 unit membership cards have been issued stated Mrs. Don Hibbert, membership chairman.

Mmes. Ralph Gastelum and Joseph Fletcher along with Messers Brown and Eubanks attended the October Teacher's meeting. Mrs. Fletcher, president, represented Yukon PTA at the 33rd District, CCPTA Annual Fall Conference held in Whittier, October 18.
