Local Scouting News TROOP 2000

Girl Scouts of Troop 2000, working on community life badges, have been keeping the neighborhood streets and yards clean.

The girls have visited two fire stations and San Pedro Police Station. At the San Pedro Police Station, Officer R. W. Poole took time to show the girls the switchboard room, Detective's Headquarters, Women's Jail, Juvenile Dept., Emergency Receiving Hospital, and Mug Shot room.

The girls also went on a tour of Fire Boat "2" on Terminal Island. The different pieces of equipment on the boat were the 10 foot turret nozzle, radar, range finder, front and rear turrets and the other different stations the firemen take on the boat.

The girls who participated were Sandy Chmieleski, Teresa Shivar, Tracy Dellman, Gwen Mills, Marty Lehr, Janice Webb, Susan Johnson, Karen Trygstad and Andrea Tindley.

Accompanying the girls were Mrs. Mildred Johnson and Leader Marty Lehr. Girl Scout Troop 2000 is sponsored by Harbor Lite Dog Obedience Club of San Pedro and Los Angeles.

BROWNIE TROOP 1469 Investiture of Brownie Troop 1469 was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Jacobsen at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 3.

Other awards presented were as follows: Ricky Galbreth, 1 year pin; Mike Kenny, Bear Badge; Craig Raiche, two silver arrows; Pat Sampier, 1 gold arrow; Tommy Touth, 1 gold arrow and 1 silver arrow.

peating the Brownie Promise, each girl was presented with a pin.

Troop members are Katherine Andrews, Mary Patricia Oakes, Roseann Chrisope, Toni D'Aquisto, Evelyn Dussel, Nancy Jacobsen, Jeanette Lieberman, Pamela Martin, April Gasco, Cheryl Akers, Cheryl Breeden, Teresa Crimmins, Melinda Swan and Linda Seckinger.

Mothers who also received pins for their service in the troop were Mrs. Robert Jacobsen, co-leader; Mrs. David Breeden, co-leader; Mrs. Robert Swan, transportation; Mrs. William Seckinger, secretary; and Mrs. Charles Gasco, in charge of cookie sales.

Each girl's mother was present and, at the conclusion of the meeting, refreshments were served.
