

Observe Silver Anniversary

MR. AND MRS. F. L. GOLDEN

Photo by Seemans

Open House was held recently for the Silver Wedding Anniversary celebration for Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Golden, 18432 St. Andrews Place, Torrance. Mr. and Mrs. Golden were married in Chickasha, Oklahoma on November 20, 1935. They have been residents of Los Angeles County for 25 years and have lived in Torrance for eight years. Parents of three children, the Golden's now have five grandchildren. Their sons, Leroy and his wife from Buena Park; Dick and his wife of Buena Park also; and their daughter, Mrs. John Maure and her husband of Hawthorne hosted the affair. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ward of Hawthorne, members of the wedding party in 1935, attended the reception. Mrs. Ward was matron of honor and Ward was best man. Grandchildren of the Golden's are Carolyn, Sharon, Pamela, and Jennifer Golden; and Ginger Maure.

Women

Lavina Nugen . . . Women's Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Carol Donaher Weds Donald Lloyd Daniels

Amidst candlelight and white chrysanthemums, Miss Carol Lee Donaher and Donald Lloyd Daniels pledged their vows at the First Methodist Church, Saturday November 26 at 2 p.m. The Reverend Gilbert Zimmerman performed the double-ring marriage ceremony uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Donaher, 20912 Dalton Ave., Torrance, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beavers, 2122 Middlebrook Road. The bride wore a white satin brocade gown fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and a drop waist line effect with a skirt ending in a brush train. A crown of lilies of the valley and pearls held her fingertip illusion veil. When given in marriage by her father, the bride held a bouquet of carnations and white orchids. Wearing identical dresses of pale green, Miss Diana Williams, maid of honor carried a bouquet of fall shaded mums; and bridesmaids and Barbara Wilson carried bouquets of white carnations with green ribbon streamers. Ron Alexander was best man. Vernon Davis and Ken Halphand were ushers. After a reception held at the church, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in San Fernando Valley. Graduates of Torrance High School, the couple are now at home in Gardena. Mrs. Daniels is employed at the Torrance City Hall and Daniels is working for Hi-berts Cabinet Shop.

MRS. DONALD LLOYD DANIELS . . . nee Carol Lee Donaher

Photo by Crotty's

Needy Children Aided by CDA

At a recent business meeting of Court Our Lady of Victory No. 1344, Catholic Daughters of America, Mrs. Stacey Rodman, grand regent, received reports from Mrs. Robert Ringel, social welfare chairman, and Mrs. Laura Dupont, sewing chairman, that 83 handmade stuffed toys were made and donated by members of the Court to the Veteran's Hospital Gift Shop in Long Beach, for the Veteran's Christmas selection. These toys had a cash value of $205. Among the items donated were: penquins, clowns, frogs, yarn dolls and humpty dumpty dolls. This is a yearly project for the members of this active Court. Plans are now being made for the "big" sewing project of the year, sewing children's garments for the Pope's Warehouse.

These garments, for boys and girls, ranging in sizes 2 thru 14 are all donations of time and new materials of the Court members. They are annually sent to the Pope's Warehouse in New York where distribution is made to the needy all over the world.

MR. AND MRS. FRED DEL PRINO

. . . formerly Charlotte Heston Photo by Seemans

Reception Honors Newly Wed Fred Del Prinos

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Del Prino, 1414 W. Carson St., Torrance, were guests of honor at a reception held recently at Park Granada Recreation Hall in Torrance. The Del Prinos were married in Las Vegas in September by the Reverend John C. Whitehead. Attending the bride and groom at the double ring wedding ceremony were Mrs. John Whitehead and Bernard Fumagalli. Mrs. Del Prino is the former Charlotte Heston daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herley Heston, 218 W. Carson St., Torrance. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sand-lin of San Pedro are the parents of the groom. Highlighting the center of Harold Natemeier served at the punch bowl and Harold Natemeier had charge of the coffee service. Registering guests was Frank King and Mrs. Duane Gann took charge of the gift table. For the reception in their honor, Mrs. Fred Del Prino chose a green silk sheath with a bouffant overskirt. She wore gold jewelry accessories and a golden colored orchid. Her groom wore a gray green continental suit with a golden yellow carnation boutonniere.

Mrs. H. D. Heston, mother of the bride, was a three tiered wedding cake served by Mrs. Charles Heston, grandmother of the bride. Mrs. of the bride, was attired in a royal blue wool suit with silver jewelry accessories and wearing a white orchid corsage. An orchid wool jersey dress with matching accessories was chosen by Mrs. Robert Sandlin, mother of the groom. She too wore an orchid corsage. Mrs. Fred Del Prino is a graduate of Banning High School and is employed by the Budget Department Stores. Del Prino, a graduate of San Pedro High School, is employed by Shopper's Market. He has recently served with the United States Coast Guard and now has completed his tour of duty.

Torrance YWCA Organizational Meeting Dec. 7

An organizational meeting for pre-affiliation with the YWCA of the United States of America will be held Wednesday, December 7 at 8 p.m. at the Torrance YWCA, 2320 Carson St. Mrs. John Paul Stone of San Diego and a board member of the National YWCA will be the guest speaker. New members must return their ballots for the election to the board of directors and nominating committee not later than 5 o'clock, December 6. Results of the election will be announced at the organizational meeting, December 7. For this year only, any new member paying dues after November 23 may secure a ballot and cast her vote between 7 and 7:30 p.m., Dec. 7 immediately preceding the organizational meeting. The nominating committee presenting the ballot are Opal Benard, chairman; Adelaide Evans, Edith Simpelaar, Minnie B. Solomon, and Herma Tillim. Refreshments will be served by the Y Teens.

Officer Slate Announced for Grancell Chapter

Mrs. Harry Kaplan has been re-elected president of the Anna Grancell Heart and Cancer chapter of Mt. Sinai Hospital and Clinic. Mrs. Kaplan is a resident of Redondo and some 19 of the new officers elected to serve with her also reside in the Bay and Gardena Valley areas. The Chapter, founded in honor of Mrs. Anna Grancell, well-known Southland philanthropist, was organized to help support the extensive treatment and research programs in diseases of the heart and in the field of cancer at Mount Sinai. Other officers include Mrs. William Sloan, 5030 Sharryanne Lane, Torrance; Mrs. Maurice Allen, Los Angeles; and Mae Ronne, 1116 Prospect Ave., Hermosa Beach, vice president; Mrs. Ernest Pollak, 415 Avenue C, Redondo, recording secretary; Mrs. Eli Weiner, 2702 W. 183rd St., corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Jane Scharfman, 1617 Arlington Ave., Torrance, financial secretary. Also Mrs. Sara Cole, 2708 W. 141st Place, treasurer; Mrs. Anna Grancell, chaplain; Mrs. Ada Yetta, 907 C. Catalina, historian; Mrs. Irving Chaiken, 105 Vista del Mar, donor chairman; and Mmes. Jacob Seakne, 737 Esplanade, and Celia Pons, 1731 Cabrillo Ave., donor co-chairman. Mmes. Joe Friedman and Sam Weber are telephone co-chairmen.

FIRST HUNDRED YEARS You can't expect to have much fun after you're a hundred, according to Dr. Stanley Mohler of the National Institutes of Health. The NIH Center for Aging Research isn't looking for a way to keep people everlastingly young. It's trying to work out a way of living so people can "die young as late as possible."

SUSAN GENE HIGDON

. . . engaged

Photo by Seemans

Cancer Film Slated for Area

"Every woman in the South Bay Area should be sure to see 'Time and Two Women', the American Cancer Society film which describes the importance of the cell examination test for detecting early uterine cancer", Mrs. Charles Gilkison, Film Show-Chairman, declared today. She said that the film could help lead to the virtual elimination of uterine cancer as a major cause of death if its message is acted upon by enough women. "Time and Two Women" and its cartoon companion, "Inside Magoo," will be shown locally on Wednesday, December 7 at 1:30 p.m. and Friday, December 9 at 10:20 a.m. at the Strand Theater in Redondo Beach. Use Press classified ads to buy, rent or sell. Phone DA 5-1515.

Voters League Schedules Unit Finance Meetings

League of Women Voters of Palos Verdes Peninsula has slated five unit meetings on California Finance for Dec. 5, 6 and 7. Mrs. R. T. McCoy, chairman of the California Finance committee, has announced that discussion will focus on whether or not earmarked revenues and fixed expenditures from the general fund should be abolished. Unit 1 will meet at 12:30 p.m., Monday, Dec. 5, in the home of Mrs. John F. Crowther, 26801 Rolling Hills Road, Rolling Hills. Members and guests attending this meeting may bring a sack lunch at 12 noon, if they wish. Morning units will meet Tuesday, Dec. 6, 9:30 a.m., in the home of Mrs. John Hummer, 2525 Via La Selva, Palos Verdes Estates, and Wednesday, 9:45 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Thomas Kenney, 2304 Via Pinala, Palos Verdes Estates. Evening meetings will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Allen Curtis, 206 Calle de Arboles, Hollywood Riviera, and Wednesday, Dec. 7, 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. W. M. Todd, 5530 Bayridge Road, Palos Verdes Estates. Any woman of voting age who is interested in the promotion of political responsibility through informed and active participation in government is invited to attend any one of the unit meetings. Membership in the local chapter of the League of Women Voters is open to all such women in the South Bay area. Use classified ads for quick results. Phone DA 5-1515.

Jack Battes Return From Europe

Home from a 17 day tour of Europe are Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Batte, 4820 Pacific Coast Highway. The Battes flew by TWA jet-liner to Europe and then toured, England, France, Germany, Holland, and Italy. Mrs. Batte said that most of the people in the various countries spoke English and this made their visit to the different countries much more interesting to them—with no language barrier.

CHRISTMAS MAGIC—Will be in store for the children who attend the Junior Women's Club Children's Christmas Party, Dec. 4 at the Women's Clubhouse. Enjoying the fun will be (left to right) Leonard Schulwitz, Louise Kirst, Susan Dorothy, and Richard Schulwitz. Mrs. Richard Dorothy with the children is chairman of the decorating committee.

SANTA CALLING—Twins Debbie and Darlene, aged three, the youngest of the "adopted" welfare family of the Mothers of Twins Club, South Bay Chapter. Watching the shining-eyed girls are Mmes. W. R. Campbell, president; Tom Prevo, philanthropic chairman; and Ralph Gaide, second vice president.

Mrs. Campbell dialed "Santa," spoken on the extension phone by eight year Neal Campbell, during Sunday afternoon surprise visit of twins and their mother. Each twin soberly asked for a dolly.