Exposed Wood Saves Painting

If you want to design a home that will never have to have its ceilings painted, use exposed 2x4s.
By nailing 2x4s together with the narrow edge exposed, you get a ceiling with perfect texture, but also one which you will never have to stain, paint or finish, unless you want to.

You can use Utility and even Economy grades of any of the popular west coast species. Douglas fir, west coast hemlock or western red cedar, for this ceiling. You can use rough-sawn or surfaced, 2x4s, depending on what texture you want.
Nail-laminated ceiling of 2x4s have other features. They cost less because they form the roof as well as the ceiling, and save costly, time-consuming framing, joists, sheathing and lath and plaster.

After Game Treat

Stadium sounds are cheers for the winners. Exciting football time is the sport of the season. Players and spectators alike need good "after-the-game" refreshments. Remember, keep them simple, plentiful and interesting.
Serve something new for the 1960 football season. One suggestion is, Beefy Bean Spread-a-Burgers. Everyone loves a good hot sandwich and all will doubly enjoy this ever-so-tasty broiled combination of canned condensed bean with bacon soup, ground beef, and seasonings spread on toasted buns. You can have them ready in no time, they're so easy to prepare.

With the burgers offer a selection of winning relishes... crisp cucumber sticks, watermelon pickle, and carrot curls. Big glasses of cold milk and a bowl of crunchy fresh fruit bring refreshment hour to a touchdown finish.

Here's the easy way to this wonderful "king of refreshments."

- Beefy Bean Spread-a-Burgers
- 1 pound ground beef
 - 1 can (11 1/4 ounces) condensed bean with bacon soup
 - 1/2 cup chopped onion
 - 1/4 cup ketchup
 - 1/4 teaspoon chili powder
 - 6 hamburger buns, split and toasted
- Combine beef, soup, onion, ketchup, and chili powder. Spread mixture evenly over bun halves; cover edges completely. Broil about 4 inches from heat for 12 to 15 minutes. Makes 6 open-face sandwiches.

Note: Garnish with sliced olives or chopped pickle.

Menu Booster Is First Rate Dinner

Need something new flavor-wise to boost appetites? Something to stretch the food dollars until pay day? About this time of year most people need such a menu booster, and Viennas With Sauerkraut is the lucky find.

Beef flavored tomato sauce and Vienna sausage go well with the tanginess of sauerkraut to make a first-rate main dish. To round out the menu, add baked potatoes and apple, crushed pineapple and nut salad, letting it do double duty as dessert.

- Viennas With Sauerkraut
- 2 cans (4 oz. each) vienna sausage
 - 1/4 cup butter, or margarine
 - 1 large onion
 - 2 cloves garlic
 - 2 tablespoons flour
 - 1 teaspoon sugar
 - 1/2 cup canned condensed beef broth
 - 1 can (8 oz.) tomato sauce
 - 1 can (1 lb. 11 oz.) sauerkraut

Brown drained Vienna sausages. Cook chopped onion and minced garlic in butter until tender. Stir in flour and sugar. Add beef broth and tomato sauce; cook until thickened, stirring. Mix drained sauerkraut into the sauce and arrange sausages on top; cover and heat slowly a few minutes. Four to six servings.
