

PINKIES—Are so cute and bring such joy to the children at Torrance Memorial Hospital that they bring smiles to (l to r) Mmes. John Bruno, Pinkie chairman; Mrs. Henry Heinlein, president of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Torrance Memorial Hospital; and George Post as they fashion more of the Pinkies. Pinkies are known all over the United States and they are never sold.

Women

Lavina Nugen . . . Women's Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Las Madrecitas Set Christmas Party Date

Exchanging gifts and enjoying their own Christmas party, December 15, will be members of Las Madrecitas. The party will be held in Palos Verdes at the home of Mrs. Richard Barbour, hospitality chairman. She will be assisted by various members who will bring hot hors d'oeuvres and other holiday delicacies.

As an Auxiliary of the Crippled Children's Guild, Las Madrecitas is dedicated to raising funds for the Pediatric Ward of the Orthopaedic Hospital in Los Angeles.

Next philanthropic event will be a spring fashion-luncheon, to be presented under the direction of Mrs. Eugene Eichler.

Joyce Templin Bride Of Larry Cluckey

At the First Lutheran Church of Torrance, Miss Joyce Templin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Templin, 2621 Brian Ave., became the bride of Larry Cluckey. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Cluckey, 24260 Neece St., are parents of the groom.

A chantilly lace gown with long pointed sleeves and a bouffant skirt was chosen by the bride for her wedding. A pearl tiara held her silk net veil. A cascade of white carnations and lilies of the valley centered with an orchid was her bridal bouquet.

Attending her sister as matron of honor, Mrs. Roy Hunkle wore a gown of gold silk organza and carried a matching cascade of tinted carnations.

Bridesmaids were Misses Carole Gerling, Pat Dillon and Lanis Wroege wore gowns of turquoise silk organza. They carried bouquets that were tinted to match their gowns.

Performing the duties of best man was Alan Hodgert. Roy Hunkle, Chuck Sahr and Gordon Watt were ushers and escorted the bridesmaids from the altar.

Miss Diane Norris registered guests at the reception held following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

Following a northern California honeymoon, the newlyweds will make their home in Torrance.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Cluckey are graduates of South High School, Torrance.

MRS. DANIEL T. DESMOND . . . nee Jane M. Ruppel
Photo by Photo Arts

Jane Ruppel Weds Daniel Desmond

Miss Jane Marie Ruppel became the bride of Daniel T. Desmond, Thanksgiving morning at the Wayfarers Chapel in Portuguese Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer F. Ruppel of LaCrosse, Wisconsin are the parents of the bride. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Daniel G. Desmond, 2412 Andree, Torrance.

A street length dress of white brocade was chosen by the bride for her wedding. A beautiful spray arrangement of red roses was her bouquet.

Mrs. Janice Lindfor, her attendant, wore an ice blue lace dress and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums with blue ribbon streamers.

James Payne served as best man.

The Reverend Kenneth Knox performed the wedding ceremony.

Immediate family members were entertained at a Thanksgiving dinner held following the wedding. The dinner guests were welcomed at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

The newlyweds are at home in Torrance after a honeymoon at a mountain resort.

Mrs. Daniel Desmond is a graduate of LaCrosse High School, her husband is now attending Northrop Institute of Technology.

Marion Welchs Honored with Reception, Buffet Supper

A reception with more than 200 friends and relatives calling to bring best wishes, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Welch, 6 Pine Tree Lane, Rolling Hills, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary, November 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade H. White, their daughter and her husband, honored the happy pair.

Mrs. Welch was as radiant as on her wedding day, when she greeted the many well wishers who came to call. She chose a sheath dress of eggshell brocaded silk. Her daughter was lovely in a bouffant gown of royal blue chiffon.

Among those who attended were Wallace M. Welch, their only son; Mrs. William Cummins, sister of Mrs. Welch; Mr. and Mrs. Wade White and children of Lomita; Miss Lynn Welch, granddaughter; and George G. Key of Placentia, who greeted the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Welch were married November 23, 1910 in Glendora, California in the home where Mrs. Welch was born. In 1905, Mr. Welch traveled from Indiana to make his home in California.

Active interests in many hobbies and social organizations have been maintained by the Welchs.

In 1949 Mr. Welch retired after working for 39 years with the Patten Blinn Lumber Company in Wilmington.

Twenty-nine years of perfect attendance with Rotary International, is a record Mr. Welch has the honor of attaining.

He is now vice president of the Wilmington Savings and Loan Association.

Mrs. Welch is an active member of the Los Angeles Friday Morning Club and a member of the Long Beach chapter CR of PEO.

Mr. and Mrs. Welch are active members of St. Mark's Presbyterian Church of Lomita.

Guests were entertained during the afternoon with solos sung by Mrs. Nick Betz, accompanied by Mrs. Wade H. White.

Mrs. Harold H. Sloan of Los Banos, niece of Mrs. Welch presided over the tea table. Miss Lynn Welch, their granddaughter, registered the guests.

A pleasant surprise for the happy honored pair was a long distance telephone call from Dr. and Mrs. Marion E. Mansell, long-time friends who live in Rockwood, Tennessee.

After the tea, Mr. and Mrs. Welch were again honored at an informal buffet supper by Mr. and Mrs. White in their Lomita home.

Thirty-five close friends, relatives, and old schoolmates helped to give a joyful anniversary of fifty years to this wonderful couple.

Altar Society Plans Card Party Dec. 14

December 14 at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium St. Catherine's Unit of the Altar Society, St. Peter and Paul Parish, will sponsor a card party.

The school auditorium is located at 706 Bayview at G St., Wilmington.

Prizes and refreshments have been planned after the games.

The public is invited said Mrs. Eva Brown, chairlady.

Jerome Doyles Greet First Son

Welcoming their first child, Patrick Brian, are SP4 and Mrs. Jerome G. Doyle, Mrs. Doyle is the former Jean Hedberg McNeil of Torrance.

Patrick Brian was born in the United States Army Hospital, Nurnberg, Germany, November 27 at 10:33 a.m. He weighed in at 7 lbs. and 3/4 oz. and measured 20 inches long.

The baby's grandmother, Mrs. Bertha F. McNeil of Torrance, is staying with the new parents and her first grandchild in Grafenwohr, Germany. SP4 Doyle is stationed with the United States Army Military Police there.

Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. T. D. McNeil, 1744 Andree Ave., long-time residents of Torrance.

Little Patrick's other great-grandmother, Mrs. Nina Hedberg, resides in Los Angeles. Mrs. Hedberg has six grandchildren and two other great-grandchildren—all girls except one grandson, Brother John A. McNeil, S.M., formerly of Torrance, but now studying at the University of Ohio.

LB Accountants Schedule Guest Speaker Dec. 14

T. F. Knight, Jr., Legislative Director of the California Manufacturers' Association, will address the Long Beach Chapter of the National Association of Accountants at their meeting to be held, Wednesday, Dec. 14, at the Lafayette Hotel.

Topic of Mr. Knight's address will be "The Effect of Legislation on Industry Costs."

Knight, as Legislative Director of the California Manufacturers' Association is departmental coordinator in the legislative field of that organization. He has further responsibilities including maintenance of policy positions and the formulation and creation of the California Manufacturer's Association activity programs.

Said Carl Schy, president of the Long Beach Chapter of the National Association of Accountants: "Tom Knight has an extensive background in the legislative and taxation field and we feel honored to have him appear as the featured speaker for our December meeting."

National Association of Accountants is the world's largest and most active association whose services are designed especially for persons in the accounting field.

MR. AND MRS. MARION WELCH . . . Fiftieth Anniversary
Photo by Al Fredricks

Pamela Frank Receives Honor

Pamela Frank, 806 Hadler St., Torrance, has been accepted for membership in the Helen Matthewson Club, oldest of the cooperative living groups at the UCLA campus.

Helen Matthewson Club was founded in 1923 by the late Helen Matthewson Laughlin, nationally known dean of women at UCLA. The club owns its own group living quarters at 820 Levering Ave., near the campus.

Members live cooperatively, including preparation of meals, other dormitory duties, and governing of their own organization.

Only young women who have been considered on the basis of exceptionally high standards are accepted and membership is considered an honor.

Miss Frank attended San Pedro High School where she was prominent in student activities. She is majoring in political science at UCLA.

Gig Young on Broadway

Gig Young has opened on Broadway to high critical acclaim from the drama critics for his starring performance in Lawrence Roman's new comedy, "Under the Yum Yum Tree," which Frederick Brisson is producing at New York's Henry Miller Theatre.

PARTY HOSTED AT RAMSEYS

Mrs. Donald H. Ramsey hosted a gathering recently at her home, 4230 W. 173rd St., Torrance, to learn new and interesting ways to wear costume jewelry.

Those who attended were Esther M. Trampe, Lynn Gerig, Elaine Onley, Connie Jackson, Virginia Weidenkoff, Francis Ramsey, Janice Wymond and daughter Tracy Jane; and Donald Eugene Ramsey.

Delightful refreshments were served to complete the complete the interesting evening.

MRS. LARRY CLUCKEY . . . formerly Joyce Templin
Photo by Seaman

Christmas Party Aids Needy Tots

In an "Old Fashioned Christmas" setting, designed and decorated by Mrs. Dale Sutton, St. Catherine Labouré Council of Catholic Women will celebrate their annual Christmas Party in their parish hall, Thursday, December 15, at 8 p.m.

A musical program entitled "Going Up" will be presented under the able direction of Mrs. Walter Hanf.

As in past years, the Council is collecting gifts for children to send to Glenmary Home Missions in Russellville, Kentucky, rather than exchanging gifts among themselves. Mrs. George Molinelli is gift chairman.

Other committee members assisting event chairman, Mrs. I. Mosbrucker, will be Mrs. Charles Gibbon, refreshments; Mrs. Louis Corso, hostesses; Mrs. William LaTendresse, favors; and Mrs. Keith Williams and Mrs. William Hale, programs.

Pot Luck Dinner Slated By St. Andrew's Women

St. Andrew's Episcopal Women's Christmas meeting and social will be held at 6:30 p.m. with a pot luck dinner on Wednesday, Dec. 14.

Special speaker for the evening will be Miss Judy Wolf who will tell of various events on her recent trip to India.

All women are cordially invited to attend the pot luck dinner meeting.

Members of the executive board who will receive the guests are: Mmes. Donald Limerick, president; Donald W. Randolph, first vice president; H. C. McLendon, second vice president; R. A. Stackhouse, recording secretary; Gene LaHusen, corresponding secretary; and Harold O. Simar, treasurer.

In charge of the traditional yuletide decorations for the affair, is Mrs. Amy Boyer.

TEA CLIMAX to the end of rushing season for Eta Kappa chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha international sorority, was held recently at the preferential tea. The affair was held in the home of Mrs. Kenneth McVey, 17644 Cranbrook Ave. Gathered around the tea table welcoming new members at the traditional affair are (left to right) Mmes. Stewart Angus, Michael Bruccoleri, John Meehan, Kenneth McVey, hostess; Louise Verne, rush chairman; R. R. Bardick, pledge; O. L. Winn Jr., pledge; William Poser, pledge; Harry Hunting, and Charles Leitchweis. Highlight of the tea was the initiation candlelight ceremony. Pledge pins were presented to each new member with a colorful corsage of a giant yellow mum. Mrs. Verne and Mrs. McVey presided at the tea table, which was covered with a lace cloth. The centerpiece was of variegated gold mums with accents of royal blue ribbon. Blue tapers in gold candle holders added to the decor.