

Housewarming Surprise for Bloomfields

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Bloomfield of 22619 Elm, Torrance, were honored recently when they were recipients of a surprise housewarming.

Highlights of the evening were the fragrance of a smorgasbord buffet supper and the warmth of many friendships.

The surprised couple were greeted by a group of two-somes including the Robert Bratts, Henry Behrens, Gilbert Monreals, Ben Allens, Alec Buckmans, Roger Hazards, Joseph Halls, Di Martinos, and Robert Surbers.

Others were Dr. and Mrs. H. Clark; Dr. and Mrs. R. Sanders; Dr. and Mrs. Curt Martins; and Mrs. Mabelle Haynes, sister of Dr. Bloomfield.

P. J. McDonald and sons Bob and Don of Port More-by, Australia were among the guests who came to surprise the Bloomfields. They are on last lap of an around the world six month tour after which they will return to their rubber plantation in New Guinea.

MRS. RUGG GREET'S GRANDSON

Mrs. Minot Rugg, 1506 W. 214th St., recently returned from visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lamb. The Lambs who live in Creswell, Oregon, recently became parents of a son.

BLOOMING PLANTS

The most elegant of all blooming plants for Christmas giving, is the Orchid. A gardener given his first Orchid in bloom, will be launched on a new hobby. For to grow an Orchid and enjoy its blooms is to want to grow more of them.

FIRST CHOICE

First choice for color in the garden the Azaleas. No other plant start their bloom so early and keep it so late. Those in bloom this month will probably still be showing their colors in early spring. And if color is needed, no other plants will supply bigger splashes of it.

BLOOD FOR A CAUSE—Proud and happy to have donated a pint of blood through the American Red Cross to enable a four-year-old boy to have the opportunity to live a normal life are six of the 24 National Supply Co. employees who gave blood at the recent Torrance bloodmobile visit. They are: Joe Haley, Lakewood; Lyle Freckleton, 1630 Greenwood, Lomita, department supervisor; Frank Schmidt, 24407 Narbonne, Lomita; Fred Flippen, Lakewood; John Bonfilio, 3116 W. 179th St., Torrance; and Bruce Lindsay, San Pedro, father of the boy who was successfully operated upon for a heart defect at UCLA Medical Center.

BROWNIE TROOP 2461
Brownie Troop 2461 in the "shoestring" area has had a very busy month and also a fun month and an even bigger one is planned for the coming month. Activities will be centered around the holidays.

November 11, the 18 girls and 2 mothers, Mmes. Wilma Henson and Billie Robertson went to Marineland.

At this time of the year, the Girl Scouts and Brownies join together and sell their calendars. The proceeds help further Scout activities among the girls.

The girls have been making "space mouses" and now are in the midst of making Christmas presents for their mothers. They plan to get started on nut cups for the children of the Harbor General Hospital for their Christmas party. This Brownie troop tries to do something for the hospital each year.

Nancy Henson and Laura Robertson were honored at a birthday party. Each girl received an autograph hound from the troop. Games and stunts were the main attractions for that day.

The mothers and their daughters of the troop will have their Christmas party on December 9 at the home of Mrs. Billie Robertson, 22111 S. Harvard.

The regular meeting of the Brownie Mothers was held this month at the home of Mrs. F. Cline with the following mothers present: Pauline Marshall, troop leader; Annie Gull, Wilma Henson, Margaret Dossey; Faye Cline, Wilma Maland, Joyce Crossley, Betty Sanford, Josie Jarvis Alice Fultz, Blanche Willis and Billie Robertson. All were urged to attend the neighborhood meeting December 12 at Normandale Playground.

HARBOR GIRL SCOUTS
Harbor District Girl Scout Troops from the 7th and 8th grades attended an orientation and yearly report this month of the "friendly visiting" program for Senior Citizens.

The purpose of the "friendly visiting" program is to visit with older folks in guest homes who are unable to get out in the community and enjoy other things. This gives them friendship and companionship that they would otherwise miss.

Troop 512 from San Pedro reviewed their past year's program at the guest home they have been working with and told of their experiences with their elderly friends.

Troop 1653 from Lomita-Harbor City gave a skit that was to be presented at the guest home of their Senior Citizens.

Guest speakers at this gathering were Leyb Nathanson, staff consultant with the LA County Senior Citizens Service Center, and Mrs. Malcolm Afterbury, chairman of the "friendly visiting" program in the Girl Scout Council of Los Angeles. They explained ways in which to find the keys to open the doors of the loneliness of these older people and to share the cheerfulness, companionship and comfort that comes from having a friend, no matter what their age.

ONLY INLAND SEAPORT
Stockton is California's only inland seaport and is connected with San Francisco Bay by a channel that is 88 miles long, reports the Automobile Club of Southern California.
