Visiting Mormon Leaders To Address Conference

Elder S. Dilworth Young, a member of the First Council of Seventy, and Elder Lionel L. Drage, a member of the General Welfare Staff of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon) in Salt Lake City, will be the featured speakers Saturday and Sunday, February 25 and 26, during a quarterly conference of the Church's Torrance Stake, Torrance, California.

Sunday's general sessions, to which the public is invited, will be held at 9:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. at the Torrance Stake

Center, 1635 W. 9th St., San Pedro.

Conducting the conference will be Stake President Roland E. Gagon, 3332 Winlock Road, Torrance.

Elder Young was a professional executive of the Boy Scouts of America for 22 years before his church appointment in 1945. He had also served as a missionary and was president of the New England Mission from 1947-1951.

Elder Drage is a director of the famed Church Welfare Plan.

All conferences held in 1961 will focus emphasis on youth development as part of a special Church-wide parents and youth program launched in 1960 by Church President David O. McKay. Leadership and welfare meetings are scheduled for Saturday.

Del Amo Baptist Pastor Tells of New Location

Del Amo Southern Baptist Church will move to its new location at 317 So. Broadway, Redondo Beach, this Sunday morning, where it has secured the use of the Seventh-day Adventist Church facilities.

Having out-grown temporary quarters at 412 Camino Real, the new location will give opportunity for continued growth of the congregation until it occupies its permanent home in the Del Amo Center Area.

Southern Baptists in this area, and friends, are invited to worship with the church in its opening services.

The pastor will bring a special message, "Choose Ye, This Day," at the 11 a.m. worship. Evening worship at 7 p.m. will feature Miss Jacqueline Liechty, missionary of New Delhi, India. Miss Liechty will speak and show films of her work there with a Christian mission home for unfortunate Indian children. The choir will present special music at both services.

'Condemned Thief' Seaside Sermon Topic Sunday

Seaside Community Church, 230th and Ocean Ave., Torrance will have "The Condemned Thief" as the sermon topic on February 26, according to Rev. Wm. K. Schatz. Ray Pauling will serve as acolyte during the service.

Worship service starts at 10 a.m. Sunday School is held at 9 a.m.

At the mid-week Lenten service on March 1, at 7:30 p.m. a film "The Challenge of Faith" will be shown. This is the challenge that Christ presents to fishermen, to tax collectors, to John the Baptist and to every man.

Pastor Wells Continues Sermon Series Sunday

Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church was pleasantly surprised last Sunday at the evening service as the pastor Robert A. Wells brought the last of four messages on "Love, Marriage, and the Home." The organist began the "Wedding March" and down the aisle came the wedding party. Miss Donna Lee Tucker and Michael Lee Poling were united in the traditional wedding ceremony. The candles in the candlebrackets were lit to give the wedding atmosphere. Following the service friends of the bride and groom were entertained at a reception at the home of the bride.

Sunday at the 8:30 and 10:50 a.m. services the Pastor will bring another in the series of messages on "Great Events From the Life of Christ." The message will be "The Healing Ministry of Jesus."

"While Jesus was on earth he demonstrated his place as 'The Great Physician.' For this reason the churches of today must be concerned with ministering to the sick. To this end a great percentage of our nations hospitals are church owned," Mr. Wells stated.

The Lomita congregation will begin a series of revival services on March 5. The preacher for this 8 Day Crusade will be Reverend Robert D. Hughes, Pastor of the first Southern Baptist Church of Long Beach.

"Service" Theme Of AAU Women

In keeping with the theme, "Service," the Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills branch of the American Association of University Women have asked a group of distinguished citizens of the Peninsula the question: "How can our AAUW operate in civ problems?"

Answers to this question were given during a panel discussion at the general meeting of the branch last Thursday in the Art Gallery.

Those who took part in the discussion were Mrs. William Bailey, first vice-president of the 33rd District PTA; Vigo Nielsen, mayor of Rolling Hills; Mrs. Mary Stoughton, member of the Coordinating Council; Patrick Stewart, past president of the Kiwanis Club; Justus A. Smith, chief of police, Palos Verdes Estates; Ray Slaney, mayor of Rolling Hills Estates; Mrs. Phyllis Stockdale, city clerk of Palos Verdes Estates; and Mrs. George Petros, president of the chamber of commerce of San Pedro.

Mrs. Harold Simar, branch treasurer, introduced the panel and acted as moderator.

Mrs. Richard A. Donnelly was chairman of the committee in charge of the 7:30 coffee hour which preceded the meeting.
