FLEMING JUNIOR HIGH
PTA met in the new Library on February 28, at 1 p.m. to celebrate Founders Day, which marks the sixty-fourth birthday of PTA, announced Mrs. Ted Hachiya, president.

Founders Day chairman was Mrs. Douglas Considine who presented past presidents of Fleming PTA, Mes. Joseph Butler and Leland Van Buren.

Presentation of the honorary life membership was made by Mrs. Dana B. Morrison, chairman, to a worthy recipient who has qualified by generously contributing toward children and youth. Scholarships and loans are made available to needy students from the purchase of honorary life memberships throughout California.

Mrs. Richard Mertz, safety chairman reported on the Fleming PTA safety program. Also featured was Mrs. Kenneth Bridges, ways and means chairman, who made an announcement regarding the forthcoming Cookie Drive. Mrs. David Goolsby, international relations chairman, reported on the success of the recent international luncheon, at which Fleming PTA was hostess.

Election of officers for the new year 1961-62 concluded the business portion of the meeting.

Mrs. Lloyd Cook, program chairman, introduced the guest speaker, Gertrude Blackstock, State Department of Mental Hygiene. Her topic was: "Lighted Windows—Helping to Understand our Teenagers Better."

Refreshments were served by hostesses from the Torrance area.

YUKON PTA bestowed honorary life membership awards to Richard Brown and Mrs. Wendall Towell at the Founder's Day meeting held Feb. 16 at the school.

Brown was honored for his many years of service to children and youth through his church, YMCA Indian Guides and PTA. He is principal at Yukon School and father of four children. Mrs. Towell received the award for her 10 years of service in PTA, Boy and Girl Scout, den mother and Brownie co-leader. She is the mother of three children.

Melvin Schultz and Mrs. Raymond Staley gave the presentations and the recipients of the annual award were revealed through portrait sketches by Mrs. Otis Hatfield.

Fashions from 1890 through 1961 were shown in the evening's "Fashions in Review" program accompanied by hit tunes of these years. Commentary and arrangements were by Mrs. Phillip Hyken, who wore an original blouse of the 1890 period.

Lending a bit of help throughout the humorous performances was Raymond Staley, dressed as the old fashioned policeman. In the showing of the gay nineties group, Mrs. Wendall Towell appeared in a motoring outfit, followed by Mrs. E. Hoffman and Mrs. Staley in original daytime and Sunday best garb. Beach wear for those particular years were shown by Phillip Hyken, with night wear "Dad's night shirt and cap" by Elmer Vandegrift.

More costumes modeled by members were the "merry widow," "school girl," "gym instructor," "children's wear," and group appearances of "bathing beauties" and "flappers."

Songs by a barber-shop quartet, pantomime by Greg Conners, and Mrs. Cohen's pupils in a song and dance number completed the program given to celebrate the 64th anniversary of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Meeting adjourned with everyone enjoying coffee, punch and Founder's cake served by fourth and fifth grade parents.—Mrs. R. West.
