Summer Program Revealed

Whimsical wit of Victor Borge makes his every program a new one, as the hilarious musicomedian will demonstrate when he opens the season at the Greek Theater of Los Angeles, June 23 through July 1. His provocative quips on anything and everything from world news to audience reaction, maintain a constant state of merriment as his fertile imagination runs riot while his fingers riffle the keyboard.

Stirring movement replaces humor from July 3 through July 8 when the inimitable Jose Greco and his brilliant Spanish Ballet Company take the stage in a program that includes the American premiere of "Tiempos de Goya," choreographed by Greco to alluring Granados music. Exciting Harry Belafonte brings a new show featuring African song stylist, Miriam Makeba, uly 10 through July 29;

The star-studded New York City Ballet, America's foremost dance company, offers their lavish full-length "The Nutcracker," with its inspired Tchaikovsky music, Aug. 4 through Aug. 9, and dances local premieres of "Liebeslieder Waltzes," "Electronics" and "Variations from Don Sebastian," in Balanchine choreography, Aug. 10, 11 and 12. Combining the artistries of pianist Roger Williams, trumpet virtuoso Al Hirt and the Belafonte Folk Singers is "Music for Tonight," created especially for the Greek Theater, Aug. 14 through Aug. 19.
