Cotton Pickers Ball Is Scheduled For Saturday

Saturday, May 20 at 8 p.m., the Cotton Pickers square dance club will host the "Cotton Pickers Ball" at Sportsman's Park, Century Blvd. and Western Ave.

This will be the third annual Ball sponsored by the Cotton Pickers. John and Ellen Murphy are president and first lady of the group.

First president was Joe and Wanda Morris and they are still very active with the square dancers.

High light of the affair will be a southern fried chicken dinner with all the delicious trimmings. The dinner will be served about 9:15 p.m. by the various members on the committee.

Queen of the Cotton Pickers, Arline M. Anderson, will be on hand to greet each member and visitor. Members of various square dance clubs in the area have been invited to attend this gala affair.

For a donation of $1 per person, an evening of fun and delicious food to top it off can be had, said John Murphy, president of the Cotton Pickers.

Callers for the evening will be Chuck Raley and Wild Bill Foross. Wild Bill calls every other week for the regular sessions of the Cotton Pickers. These meetings are held at Stephen White Junior High School, 220th St. and Figueroa.

Hosts and hostesses for the evening will be Anna Fischer, Turke, Marge, Hazel Dawling, Dick Woods and Maxine Polins.

PTA News

MADRONA PTA meets May 11, at the Madrona School cafeteria from 7:30 p.m. This is the last meeting under the theme "Treasure Chest of Ideas and Ideal."

It is "Our Sponsored Treasures." Sponsored groups of Cub Scouts, Brownies, Girl Scouts, and Boy Scouts will be present, each parent, will want to be there to see them all.

Last meeting permitted a preview of the school's band. A full evening of band music with solos and novelty numbers was enjoyed by all.
