

Explorer Post Presents Flag From Capitol

Explorer Post 565X will present a flag donated by Senator Kuchel along with a letter of certification from the architect of the Capitol to Mr. Hammit, Normandale Playground director, July 4.

This flag has flown over the United States Capitol and is to be flown over the Normandale Playground in the future.

The Indian Lore Dance Team from 565X attended the annual Indian Festival at Bonelli Stadium, Saugas, June 16, 17, and 18.

Indian tribes from Oklahoma, Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, Montana, Utah, and many other states were represented.

Many different tribes presented their native costumes and dances, competing for prizes. The Explorers danced all Friday evening and were permitted to dance after the Indian program Saturday and Sunday nights.

ATTENDING

The following boys attended: Leon Carpenter Jr., Fred Bose, Mike Corey, Dan Rickard, John Shattuck, Ken Shattuck, Dick Sullivan, Bob Sullivan, and Gary Wilkerson.

They were accompanied by their adult dance consultant Gary Richard, the advisor to the Indian Dance Team Pete Corey, Post Advisor H. C. Shattuck, Assistant Post Advisor Norm Richard, and boys.

Saturday night Raymond Morton, who appeared in the movie, Cimarron with his sister Namba, was a guest of the group.

Army Reservist Reports To Duty

Local Army Reservist Paul R. Gentile Jr., a member of the 7623rd Transportation Unit Training Activity, U. S. Army Reserve Unit stationed at Hawthorne, reported to the U. S. Naval Amphibious Base, Coronado, California, June 18, for two weeks active duty, according to Colonel Sidney N. Epstein, commander.

Master Sergeant Gentile and the other 18 officers and enlisted men of his unit present for duty are evaluating amphibious maneuvers of the 368th Transportation Command (Terminal C, and attached units, commanded by Colonel Philip J. Donovan, learning and practicing their skills in putting men and materials across the beach, supported by the Navy and Marines.

Master Sergeant Gentile is a Sergeant Major assigned to the S-1 section of the unit.

In civilian life he is supervisor accounting clerk, CEB-MCO, Air Force Ballistic Missile Division. Sergeant Gentile resides at 5009 Asteria St., Torrance, with his wife and child.

The 7523rd T.U.T.A., if called to active duty, would be expanded to many times its present size, and would serve as a direct representative of the Chief of Transportation, Washington D.C.

Firm Announces New Promotions

Shell Chemical Company has announced promotions and transfers at its Torrance plant which will take effect during the next month.

R. C. Balfour, 4919 Reynold Drive, Torrance, has been promoted to assistant manager of finishing at the rubber plant. He formerly was technical assistant. Balfour joined the company as a chemist in 1954.

Other changes include: R. L. Kittle, Long Beach, named to a senior position with Shell International Chemical Company, Ltd., London. He formerly was manager of manufacturing for Synthetic Rubber Division.

H. E. Hughes, Lafayette, replaces Kittle. He formerly was assigned to be manager of Shell's new rubber plant at Marietta, Ohio.

G. A. White, Long Beach, named to replace Hughes. White had been assigned as superintendent of operations for the Marietta plant.

J. J. Galligan, Long Beach, named to be in charge of treasury functions at the Marietta plant. He presently is supervisor of accounting for the Synthetic Rubber Division.
