Firm Promotes City Resident

G. L. Schrader, 21418 Ladeene Ave., Torrance, has been named district sales manager for Texaco Inc.'s newly established San Diego sales district, effective July 1, it was announced here today by W. H. Peterson, manager of Texaco's Los Angeles Sales Division.

In his new capacity, Schrader will have charge of all Texaco sales activities in San Diego, San Bernardino, Riverside and southeastern California.

Schrader formerly was merchandising representative in the Los Angeles Sales department throughout the Pacific Coast Region.

"This streamlining will make possible a more flexible and effective organization," Peterson said. "We are placing more operating authority in the hands of district managers, where decisions can be made faster and with more direct knowledge of specific marketing conditions."

Choir Presents Annual Barbeque

Plans are now complete for the Annual Couples Barbeque of Seaside Community Church, 230th and Ocean Ave., Torrance. As in the past, the barbeque is being held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Martin, 5307 Reese Rd., Torrance, July 8, at 8 p.m.

This year, the choir of Seaside Church has taken charge of the arrangements with Mrs. David Tepas as general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Irv Pauling, Mrs. Wm. Parker, Mrs. Earl Welliver, Jr., and Mrs. Carl Binford.

Entertainment with games and prizes has been planned. Tickets are available from Mrs. Carl Binford, FR 5-5159, or any member of the choir. A donation of $1.50 is being asked, with all proceeds going toward the purchase of choir robes.

Dr. O. Byron Richardson, Revival Evangelist for the one million member Texas Baptist Convention, will be the preacher for the occasion. Richardson is a popular evangelist, having conducted over 30 revivals in the last 18 months. This will be his fifth revival in the area. He is a graduate at Baylor University.

The music will be directed by Dr. Joe Trussell. He is a gospel vocalist, Mrs. Trussell will serve as vocalist.

The seven churches that are cooperating in the campaign are Anza Avenue, Crenshaw, Del Amo, and Keystone of Torrance; First Baptist of Lomita; and Narbonne Avenue of Lomita; Temple Heights of San Pedro.

The Revival services will be conducted July 9 to 23 each evening at 7:30 p.m.

Hadassah Forms Chapter in Area

Thirteen thousand Zionist women who belong to 10 Southland chapters of Hadassah in Los Angeles and Orange counties will launch a Golden Jubilee membership drive Tuesday, July 11, to double their number by mid-August.

Joining in top leadership of the campaign from this area will be Mrs. Gerson Jacobson, Torrance, president of the newly chartered South Bay Chapter of Hadassah, and Mrs. Randolph C. Fields, Gardena, membership vice president.

The South Bay clubwomen will meet with three hundred Southland leaders of Hadassah Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. in the Regency Room of the Sheraton-West hotel, 2965 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles, for the initial all-day kickoff rally of the campaign, Mrs. Jacobson said.

The drive, in which every member will be urged to sign up one new member, is being co-ordinated by the West Coast Branch of National Hadassah, in conjunction with the Southern Pacific Coast Region of Hadassah, on the 50th anniversary of the founding of the famed Zionist women's organization by the late Henrietta Szold.

"Our Golden Jubilee Membership Drive slogan," Mrs. Jacobson said, "will be, 'Offer your neighbor a golden opportunity for an enriched identification with America, Israel and the Jewish people through Hadassah.'"

Through re-enrollment of present members and a "gold rush" for new members, Mrs. Jacobson explained, the philanthropic organization will step up its farflung program in this country and abroad.
