Altrusa Club Presents New Term Officers

The Altrusa Club of Torrance held its Third Annual Installation of Officers at the Jump 'n Jack June 20.

President Ilona Rubenstein opened with a speech of welcome to guests. New members initiated were Mrs. Russell M. Paxton, Mrs. Nancy N. Johnson, who were presented with club pins and corsages.

The floral decorations brought out the color scheme of blue and white, which is symbolic of Altrusa. Miss Rubenstein and Mrs. Iris Ekstrand, president elect, were presented white orchid corsages.

Newly elected officers installed by Helen Folsom of Long Beach were Mrs. Ekstrand, president; Mrs. Jack Amberson, vice president; Mrs. Dennis Willyard, recording secretary; Mrs. Marybeth Hornbeck, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Wm. O. Baker, treasurer.

Attending were the Pilot's Club of Torrance, the Altrusa Club of Long Beach and prospective members.

Lifeguard Shows Safety Picture To Twins' Moms

Robert Scoles, county lifeguard, will show a Junior Life Guard film on water safety July 17 at 7:30 p.m. at the International Pancake House at the dinner meeting of the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club.

Upon conclusion of the film, Scoles will answer questions.

Members of the club attending are bringing two items of canned goods apiece to add to the club stockpile. Canned goods will be used in baskets for needy families during Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter.

The meeting is open to all members, prospective members. Membership information can be obtained by contacting Mrs. Gordon Anderson of Palos Verdes Estates.

Women Sponsor Booth

A ring toss booth will be sponsored by the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, Marina District CFWC, at the Community Carnival, to be held at the Del Amo Shopping Center Thursday through Sunday, July 20 to 23.

Money raised from the booth will be donated to the Torrance Youth Employment Service.

Evening Vows Unite Couple

At 8 p.m. July 1, Sylvia Herrian exchanged vows with Leonard Fredrick Fritsche in Trinity Lutheran Church of Hawthorne to become his wife.

Miss Herrian is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman A. Herrian of Oregon. Fritsche is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Krueger, 5119 W. 123rd St., Torrance.

Officiating at the wedding was the Rev. Richard Bersie. The church was decorated in pink and white.

The bride appeared in a gown with a silk organza skirt, chantilly lace top, elbow length veil, and a chapel train. She carried white carnations, stephanotis and orchids in a cascade bouquet.

GIVEN AWAY

She was given away in marriage by her father at the double-ring ceremony.

Attending the bride was Mrs. Richard Stephens, sister, who served as matron of honor. Nancy Kaye Herrian, Sue Resnik, and Mrs. Hugh Hartley were bridesmaids.

The bride's attendants wore light pink taffeta dresses. Bridesmaids carried light pink cascade carnation bouquets. The matron of honor's bouquet was of dark pink carnations.

BEST MAN

Best man for the bridegroom was John Fritsche. Ushers were Walter Seller, Kelly Kappen and Steve Dodson.

At the wedding, the bridegroom's mother wore a beige chiffon gown and the bride's mother wore a pink sheath.

After a reception at the parish hall of the church following the ceremony, the couple departed for a honeymoon in Santa Barbara.

The bride, who is presently employed by Inglewood schools, is a graduate of Pacific Lutheran College in Tacoma, Washington.

Fritsche, who is a graduate of El Camino College, works for Hawthorne Parks and Recreation.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Fritsche now reside at 317 W. Kelsa St., Inglewood.

CAKE TOP

To top a plain cake, spread it lightly with creamed honey and then sprinkle it with coconut or chopped nut meats.

Miss Boyko, Draggoo Wed at Glass Chapel

During an early-evening exchanged nuptial vows with double-ring ceremony June Glen Myrl Draggoo to become Mrs. Glen Myrl Draggoo.

Miss Boyko, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Boyko, 16702 Cerise Ave., Torrance, was given away by her father at the 6:30 p.m. wedding.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Myrl Draggoo of Walkerville, Michigan.

The Rev. Kenneth W. Knox officiated during the ceremony at the Wayfarers Chapel in Portuguese Bend.

GOWN

The bride wore a gown with a bodice of Viennese lace, a Sabrina neckline trimmed with aurore borealis sequins and pearls, and a bouffant skirt with alternating layers of lace and silk net.

She wore a veil of illusion which was cascaded from a coronet crown of lace aurore borealis sequins and pearls.

Her bouquet was a cascade of white carnations, roses and stephanotis surrounding a white orchid.

The bride's going-away outfit was a beige sheath with a balero jacket. The sheath, which was trimmed in brown, was worn with beige accessories. She wore a white orchid and stephanotis corsage.

MAID OF HONOR

Maid of honor for the bride was Janet Graff, who wore a yellow silk organza, carried yellow carnations and roses. She wore a yellow headband and veil.

Junior bridesmaid was Dallas Rose Boyko, who wore a gown of orchid silk organza and a headpiece and veil of orchid. She carried carnations.

Best man was Marc Frost, with Bob Kulnzelman serving as usher.

The mother of the bride wore an orchid sheath, three-quarter length jacket, hat, and white accessories.

After a reception, at which dinner was served to 60 guests at the Penguin Room at Marineland Restaurant, the couple left by jet for a honeymoon in Kansas.

GRADUATE

The bride is a graduate of North High. She graduated from El Camino College later with an associated-arts degree. The bridegroom, graduate of Walkerville High School, attended Santa Monica College.

The couple is making a temporary residence in Kansas, where Draggoo is serving with the army and is stationed at Fort Riley.

Registrar was Miss Gary Clelland. An out of town visitor at the wedding was Mrs. L. Heath of Winnipeg, Canada, who is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. L. T. Bromley.
