

Moving pictures were shown at Gable House last Thursday afternoon. The actresses in the film were the lady bowlers who attended the spare pick-up class.

COULD SEE MISTAKES

The gals assembled upstairs before class in the meeting room to view themselves in action. The colored films showed each gal with her particular style and approach. This was the true way to see your own mistakes.

To live up to the gathering, Homel ran the films backwards. It was comical to see the gals suddenly have the ball fly back in her hand, but this method proved informative. You could concentrate and see more of the actual delivery.

After the film, the class assembled for practice to correct their mistakes.

Homel plans to take more pictures in about three weeks, so be sure to be on hand. The gals had a lot of fun and enjoyed it thoroughly.

BOWLING NEWS

The entry list is up to 16 in the tourney to pick the eighth member of the Los Angeles Toros of the National Bowling League.

Latest to file their applications with club owner Leonard Hamel are Joe Scullion of Glendale, 193 average; Robert Carlyle of Pico Rivera, 199; and Carl Moecker of Downey, 195. Deadline for tournament entries is July 26 and play begins August 5. Gable House is also accepting applications.

The Toro arena in Culver City next to Jefferson Bowl is fast taking shape and Homel discloses that installation of the four championship Brunswick lanes have begun. Homel and Jefferson Bowl house engineer Joe Smith have devised an electric scoreboard that will be used for Toro league matches when play begins October 13.

The board is 24 feet wide and eight feet high and consists of lights operated from a central console, lights that show the names of the players, score by frames with all marks, NBL bonus points for high games, and cumulative team totals. It will be at the pin end of the lanes, easily visible from every one of the 1160 seats in the arena.

In other news, twenty of Southern California's finest Junior bowlers entered the finals of the First Annual Southern California Junior Match Game Championships sponsored by the BPA.

The top bowler of the 20 going into the finals is Charles Garrison, National City, with 2405 pins for 12 games.

Gable is proud of its contender, David Matosky of Torrance, in eighth place with a 2203.

The finals will be held this week-end at Victory Bowling Center in Van Nuys.

The top eight based on combined scores will participate in match play with each bowler meeting each of the finalists in a two game match, with the final round being position play.

Good luck, Davey. We are proud you were in eighth place in the semi-finals and here's hoping you do well over the week-end. Good luck to all the boys.

The radio broadcast which was to be brought to you from Gable House tomorrow evening will be temporarily postponed due to technical difficulties.

Just as soon as station KAPP gets under way, you will receive the announcement—so bear with us and please stand by.

Orioles Smash Through Phils at Tordondo Game

The Tordondo Little League Orioles made a comeback from their bruising defeat by the Pirates to take the Phils 11 to 7 last week. Lanny Weissman pitched three scoreless innings for the Orioles striking out six men in the first three innings and, when he began to wilt, was relieved by Bill Barto who nailed down the game for the Orioles. In the Orioles' big six-run fourth inning Jack Duncan again cleared the bases by driving in three runs with a long triple and then scoring on the overthrow. Phils brain-trusting backfired when they yanked their pitchers.

Skip Chandler, who allowed only one run, was pulled in the next inning when he walked in one run with one out. But the usually reliable Mike Mannion did not have his stuff and was touched up for the remainder of the runs.

UPSET

The Angels upset the Cards 18 to 12. The highlight of the game was Bruce Harris of the Cards robbing home run hitting Vince Champion of a grand-slam by leaping at the fence and almost landing outside the ballpark.

Other Scores: Pirates 13, Red Sox 8; Stars 5, Giants 0; Beavers 15, Phils 3; Pirates 11, Padres 6.
