

Exciting Decor Highlights Opening of CWF Term

Interest was high in the gaily decorated tables at the first monthly meeting of the new 1961-62 church year for the Christian Women's Fellowship of the First Christian Church of Torrance.

Each group leader had decorated her table to represent the Latin American country or city which her group will be named after this year.

The tables were gay with Latin American scenes, hibiscus, cactus, pineapples, coconuts, bongo drums, and palm trees. Each table contained name tags or place cards for members. It was with much excitement that each woman discovered the group she would be in and her fellow group members for the next year.

CHOOSE

Mrs. C. H. Thompson, CWF president, decorated her table with the theme "Choose Ye This Day" of the Quadrennial Assembly of the International Christian Women's Fellowship which she and Mrs. Dean Lougee will attend July 19 to 23 at Purdue University.

She briefly outlined the program of the assembly and invited the women to browse through the study books and pamphlets that they will be using at the assembly.

Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Lougee will present the program "A Report from the Quadrennial Assembly" for the August CWF meeting. Mrs. Thompson also presented the women their new year-books.

BUDGET

Mrs. Lougee presented the CWF budget for the next year in the form of a hat fashion show. The board members had cleverly decorated their hats to represent the items in the new budget.

Those who appeared in the fashion show were Mmes. C. H. Thompson, Dean Lougee, Grant Jones, V. C. Viellenave, Tom Saine, Frank Franzen, H. G. Cassell, Stewart Cooke, Hans Thomsen, Robert Vroman, James Warden, William McKim, Jim Richards, C. W. Bartholomew, Ray Stewart, and Irvin Bishop.

HONORING Past Grand Knight of Los Crusados Council 1990 of Knights of Columbus Lyle O'Hara (left) will be the Grand Knights Ball Saturday, July 22, at the K of C Hall, 214 Ave. I, Redondo. Pictured with O'Hara is his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Stacy Rodman. Rodman is the newly elected grand knight.
