El Camino Theater Presents 'New Clothes for Emperor'

substitute genius, a country under an evil spell, and two lovable rogues combine to furnish entertainment for children in "New Clothes for the Emperor," opening at El Camino College's Campus Theater July 21 at 7:30 p.m.

For El Camino College's third production in its summer-theater series, drama instructor Burnett Ferguson has chosen Nicholas Stuart Gray's stage adaptation of the beloved classic written by Hans Christian Andersen.

A delightful blend of whimsy, colorful costumes, and broad humor, Gray's play has captivated audiences of all ages for years. Its message about the perils of vanity and self-delusion never interferes with the rollicking pace of the fantasy.

CLOTHES

Directing "Clothes" is Bonnie Flagg, El Camino graduate now studying at Los Angeles State College. Miss Flagg comes to the production with acting experience as Peter Pan in El Camino's production of "Peter Pan" and numerous other roles in productions in the South Bay. Assisting in directorial chores and with costumes is Laura Lee Layelle.

The two rogues, Piers and Perkin, are played by Victor Matson and Gary Bradbrook, two newcomers to El Camino Campus Theater, but with considerable stage experience. Vic is a member of the Westchester Lariats, a dance troupe which has performed in various parts of the country.

EMPEROR

The Emperor is played by Norman Fordyce, speech and drama major who has appeared at El Camino and with the Hampton and Manhattan Players in both leading and minor roles.

Paul Wilkening, Aviation High School graduate, plays the role of Lord Chancellor. Wilkening has appeared in

'Belles' Give Minstrel Show

Negotiations are under way for several performances of a Minstrel Show to be given by the "Mello-D-Belles."

The show will be in rehearsal for four months. The cast of 20 will present the Minstrel with all the traditional style and flair of the old days — jokes, songs, instrumentalists and dance acts.

The Mello-D-Belles, formerly known as the Steele Belles throughout Torrance, Gardena, Bellflower, Lakewood, South Bay and the beach cities, were the mother singers of the Carl Steele School. The Steele Belles resigned from the Carl Steele PTA in order to change their name and free-lance.
