Nuptial Vows Join Pair in Marriage

At 2 p.m. in St. Lawrence Martyr Church July 15, Vivian Helena Oberst exchanged nuptial vows with James Alton Mallory.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Oberst, 175 Via Los Miradores, was given away in marriage by her father.

Mallory, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Price Mallory of Arizona, was attended by Louis Oberst, best man; and John Hattrup, brother of the bride, and Robert Van Gordon, ushers.

Attending the bride at the double-ring ceremony were Dyanne Speech, maid of honor, and Ingrid Miller and Karen Oberst, cousin of the bride, who were bridesmaids.

GOWN

The bride, who appeared in a gown of white silk which was completely over-laid with white lace trimmed in pearl, wore a long train and a pearl crown. She carried a tear-drop bouquet of white gladiolas, carnations and orchids with a detachable bouquet for the altar of the Blessed Virgin.

The three attendants of the bride wore yellow gowns of chiffon and silk. The maid of honor carried a tear-drop bouquet of white carnations interlaced with yellow ribbons.

The two bridesmaids carried tear-drop bouquets of white carnations which were interlaced with yellow ribbons.

Father Charles Ara officiated at the altar. The church was decorated in white gladiolas and carnations.

MOTHERS

Mother of the bride wore a romance blue, rice silk sheath with rice silk and lace pepum. The bridegroom's mother wore a silk brocade aqua blue sheath.

After a reception from 3 to 5 p.m. at the home of the bride's parents, the couple departed for a honeymoon at Cambria Pines. The couple's

PTA Gives Treat To 140 Children

The Halldale Ave. School Playground participants received a special treat Thursday, July 20, when members of the PTA served snow cones to the 140 boys and girls, engaged in the daily activities at the playground, which is open Monday-through Friday from 12:30 to 5:30 p.m., under the direction of Gabriel Cortina.

Those serving the snow cones were, Mrs. L. B. White, PTA president, Mrs. Ralph Standridge, Jack Kenyon, and Dewie Gamble.

Sequoia Indian Maidens Tour Antique Gallery

Twenty mothers and daughters of the Sequoia Tribe, YMCA Indian Maidens, recently spent an evening in Kuska's Antiques Gallery in Lomita.

The various items on display were described by Mr. and Mrs. Kuska, with special emphasis on the large collection of dolls. Of special interest were the various German and French dolls, as well as those made of corncocks and dried apples.
