STRAWBERRY BASKET—A row of these little baskets make a charming decoration for a summer luncheon. Save the cartons in which strawberries are packed. Line basket with foil, place a newspaper pad of several thicknesses in the bottom and cover with a square of foil. On this place a saturated Oasis flower holder. Arrange pink or red short-stemmed miniature roses in the Oasis. For the final touch add artificial or fresh strawberries to the basket, making stems by inserting pipe-cleaners in the berries.

Tamara's Fashions Becomes Realization After 15 Years

Fifteen years of experience and an extensive interest in feminine fashions are the factors which sparked the eventual establishment of Tamara's Feminine Fashions at three locations, one at Del Amo Shopping Center.

Maurice and Tamara Prawn worked in women's fashions when residing in New York.

The pair immigrated from Poland 15 years ago. "I have been interested in women's clothing ever since I was a little girl. We have hoped to get a little shop of our own ever since we came to America," she said.

The Pawns began the realization of their dream with the opening of their Los Angeles Tamara's Feminine Fashions store. The success of this store inspired them to open a Tamara's in San Pedro in 1959 and finally one in Del Amo Shopping Center now.

Tamara attributes her business success to the policy of carrying an exclusive line of merchandise and maintaining the attitude that the customer is always right.

The Pawns have two sons, Albert, 13½, and Harold, 10½, and reside in Los Angeles.

Torrance Tamara's, which is under the management of Renee and Alex Chuba, is celebrating its grand opening. Tamara herself will be there to offer hints on good grooming she has picked up during her years of experience in the field.

The store, which is directly behind the J. C. Penny store, features the following name
