Newlyweds Depart For Trip to Tahoe

Ann Sackman and John V. Campo exchanged nuptial vows July 22 at 4 p.m. in the First Baptist Church of Torrance to become man and wife.

The Rev. Morgan officiated during the double-ring ceremony.

Miss Sackman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil E. Sackman, 24231 Palena, Lomita. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Erminia Campo, Lynwood.

The bride, who wore a gown of silk organza over taffeta with chantilly lace, was escorted to the altar by her father who gave her away in marriage. She carried a white waterlilies.

ATTENDANTS

Attending the bride were Carol Zufall, maid of honor, and Judy Waller and Joyce Sackman, all dressed in street-length pink silk organza gowns with scooped necks.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was Bud True. Jim Woods, Tom Sackman and Gary Evans were ushers.

Flower girl was Jeri Sackman, who wore a pink nylon frock and carried a basket of rose petals. Ring bearers were Mark Taylor and Brian Wiggins.

MOTHERS

The bride's mother attended the ceremony in a turquoise lace over taffeta sheath and the bridegroom's mother wore a beige silk sheath.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall. The couple departed from the reception for a one-week honeymoon at Lake Tahoe.

The bride is a graduate from Torrance High and the bridegroom is a graduate from Lynwood High. Both attended El Camino College for one year. She is employed by CBS in Hollywood and he is employed by Dubuque Fire and Marine Insurance.

DINNER HOSTS

Hosting dinner for a table of friends at The Pen & Quill restaurant in Manhattan Beach were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Moser of Torrance.
