Troop Celebrates Fourth Birthday

Girl Scout Troop 2080 celebrated its fourth birthday with a bowling party at South Bay Bowling Center. Christine Pritchard received a trophy for having the highest individual score. Trophy for "Best Sport" was given to Gwendolyn Hawkins.

The Alley Scouts, Rita Scott, Darlean Eaton and Lorraine Gray, also received trophies for having the highest team score. All the trophies were given the troop by its sponsor, R. W. Whittam.

After bowling, the scouts went into the Steak Knife Restaurant for birthday cake, ice-cream, and Shirley Temple cocktails. Eligible girls received year-pins from leader Mrs. Ray Bonawitz. Karen Mason received a five-year pin.

Other members of Troop 2080 include: Jackie Bonawitz, Christine Brutschy, Sharine Cairns, Judy Cheatham, Susan Coleman, Elaine Dain, Cynthia Dawson, Elaine De Orio, Kathleen Doran, Diane Freeman, Cheri Hollerup, Gail Kerns, Nancy King, Betty Parker, Juanita Atkins, Lurena Pierce, Kathy Steele, Janice Thompson, Lynda Tilley, Cookie Trader, Diane Tucker, Claudia Whitam, and Camy Cochran.

Mothers who helped Scouts celebrate the troop's birthday were Mmes. Ray Bonawitz, Paul Eaton, William Freeman, Eugene Hollerup, Wendell Pritchard, and Joe De Oreo.

Auxiliary Opens Term Activities

Harbor View, Unit 217, Ladies Auxiliary of the Fleet Reserve Association opened new term activities with board of directors meeting held in the home of President Mrs. William C. Davis in San Pedro Tuesday Night August 1, at 7:30 p.m. It will hold its first 1967-68 General Membership Business Meeting Thursday August 3 at 8 p.m.

Agenda plans for the new year, delegates to the caucus, and to the convention will be elected and voted on. Also the resolutions and endorsements for the regional caucus will be discussed and approved.

Mrs. Davis requested all officers, board members and committee members as well as the general membership to attend.

Bird Hobbyists Feature Speaker

The Harbor Bird Hobbyists Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lewis of North Redondo Beach Sunday, July 30, at 1 p.m.

Guest speakers were James Durey of Torrance, and Lee Moody of the Bird Association of California, Chapter 1.

As a special treat, Joseph R. Lewis, who was formerly with the U.S. Government and the Los Angeles County Museum, gave a report on his particular hobby . . . butterflies.

Anyone interested in birds, captivity or wild variety, and would like to join the club may call FA 8-5483 (evenings) for information.

The Community Chest campaign is the uppermost thought these days in the minds of several Torrance women.

Mrs. Edward Schneider, 3520 184th St., will serve as chairman of the residential appeal in Torrance, assisted by three unit chairmen, Mrs. Joseph Jay, 4060 W. 226th St., South Torrance; Mrs. J. A. Davis, 2452 W. 227th St., Central Torrance, and Mrs. William Nary, 17210 Spinning Ave., North Torrance.

Already enrolled as division chairman for the 1967 United Way-Community Chest campaign for 170 causes are Mmes. John Derry, 2650 Brian Ave., Thomas L. Dempster, 17035 Spinning Ave.; Lars Holt, 16838 Thornburgh Ave.; Milton Huber, 18720 Woty Ave.; Conrad Jackson, 20116 Pruitt Dr.; Albert Kovack, 21730 Barbara St.; Stanley Lipczynski, 4817 Vanderhill Road; Kenny Uye-da, 18335 1/2 S. Western Ave.; Fred Vedder, 375 Camino de las Colinas, and Don Yockey, 5114 Paseo de las Tortugas.

Enrollment of volunteer workers will continue for the next three months so that by November when the residential campaign begins Torrance will have a full complement ready to begin the house-to-house solicitation.

DESIGNER'S DREAM
Plastics will account for about 20 percent of the materials being used in home construction by the end of this decade, officials of B. F. Goodrich Chemical Company are predicting. Vinyl products are claimed to be a designer's dream for color, quality, and adaptability.

FESTIVE CENTERPIECE for summertime celebrations. Use two empty tin cans of same diameter—place one on top of the other and secure with masking tape or floral clay. Cover both cans with a sheet of red paper and fill the top can with two saturated Oasis foam flower holders. Insert geraniums or red zinnias in Oasis adding ivy or geranium leaves. Complete the arrangement with a large red candle for atmosphere.
